were also the times of flirting and romance Punishments included the cane manual labour and detention Suspension and expulsions were only for very serious offences I hope that this book brings back high school memories to each reader

Where Did It All Go Right? Andrew Collins,2008-09-04 Andrew Collins was born 37 years ago in Northampton His parents never split up in fact they rarely exchanged a cross word No one abused him Nobody died He got on well with his brother and sister and none of his friends drowned in a canal He has never stayed overnight in a hospital and has no emotional scars from his upbringing except a slight lingering resentment that Anita Barker once mocked the stabilisers on his bike Where Did It All Go Right is a jealous memoir written by someone who occasionally wishes life had dealt him a few more juicy marketable blows The author delves back into his first 18 years in search of something anything that might have left him deeply and irreparably damaged With tales of bikes telly sweets good health domestic harmony and happy holidays Andrew aims to bring a little hope to all those out there living with the emotional after effects of a really nice childhood Andrew Collins kept a diary from the age of five so he really can remember what he had for tea everyday and what he did at school excerpts from his diary run throughout the book and it is this detail which makes his story so compelling
