The Cadillac Story Thomas E. Bonsall, 2004 The Cadillac story is more than the story of a car company It is in many ways the story of the American automobile industry itself which as much as any industry drove America's growth in the twentieth century and defined who we are as a people For generations of Americans Cadillac epitomized expansive prosperity This illustrated history of Cadillac presents all the triumphs and failures of the marque's last sixty years from the good times through the disastrous 1980s and up to the current reconstitution of the brand

Location Behaviour and Relationship Stability in International Business Networks Bart Kamp, 2006-12-05 This new book investigates how the relationships of international business networks one buyer multiple suppliers develop over time looking at the geographical angle as well as an actor composition point of view Bart Kamp presents a framework that reveals what business to business b2b factors explain buyer supplier co location patterns making it possible to predict the geographical behaviour of suppliers and also assesses whether longevity is truly the deep rooted feature of international b2b network relationships that it is often claimed to be

Variety of Development Qiushi Feng, 2017-09-22 This book examines China the world's largest auto market since 2008 and the story of how Chinese auto makers developed is the story of the Chinese economy in microcosm It focuses on China's systemically important automobile sector this book reveals how local institutions have moderated structural changes at national and global levels and consequently generated significant organizational diversity in the production sphere This book begins with the intriguing observation that individual Chinese car makers have been evolving in different directions despite a shared context what factors led to these diverse choices and positioning It is the central aim of this book to explain the variety of institutional forms used by Chinese car manufacturers in navigating the market transition and answering the challenges posed by globalization
