Dear Sister in Christ,

I am writing this as a letter to you personally, Diane, my dear sister in Christ, so that if you become anxious about the future, or you need encouragement about what is ahead, you can read it and hopefully hear God speak to your heart.

I am writing this because I want to remind you of the great future God has for you. I know this because He said so. He says you have not seen, nor heard, nor even imagined anything as great as what He has prepared for you (1 Corinthians 2:9).

You have no idea how great your future is. He says that what He has for you is so great that if you truly understood it, you would feel "that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed" in you (Revelation 8:18). That means whatever you envision for your life right now is already too small.

Don't judge your future by what you read in the newspaper or the words someone spoke over you one time. Your future is in God's hands, my dear sister in Christ.

Don't become discouraged if things don't happen as fast as you would like them to. They never do. Don't be concerned if you are not seeing all that you want in response to your prayers. You will.

Staritsa Donald A. Guglielmi, 2017-12-07 The present book is the first work to highlight Catherine Doherty's vocation to spiritual motherhood Drawing upon primary archival sources the author traces Catherine's development as a staritsa or spiritual mother in the Russian Eastern tradition Of particular interest are the chapters dealing with Catherine's exercise of spiritual motherhood for priests and laity alike Previously unpublished letters of spiritual direction between Catherine and her major spiritual directors offer the reader a privileged glimpse into the soul of this servant of God and her spiritual children as she grows in her vocation as staritsa For example in one striking letter Catherine describes how she guided a disillusioned young priest who was struggling with a drinking problem and temptations involving young women and was bordering on despair With clenched teeth I sailed into him first gently almost caressingly calling him back to Christ he once loved then more sternly then quietly He left full of thanks and some hope Learning as Shared Practice in Monastic Communities, 1070-1180 Micol Long, 2021-10-11 In this study Micol Long looks at Latin letters written in Western Europe between 1070 and 1180 to reconstruct how monks and nuns learned from each other in a continuous informal and reciprocal way during their daily communal life The book challenges the common understanding of education as the transmission of knowledge via a hierarchical master disciple learning model and shows how knowledge was also shared exchanged jointly processed and developed Long presents a new and more complicated picture of reciprocal knowledge exchanges which could be horizontal and bottom up as well as vertical and where the same individuals could assume different educational roles depending on the specific circumstances and on the learning contents See inside the book Air Force Chaplains: Air Force chaplains, 1947-1960 United States.
