

Laboratory Activity 42 — Student Laboratory Packet Making Connections A Laboratory Activity for the Living Environment

Measuring Connections

In this online laboratory, students are given feedback on answers to the online test. But students themselves have selected their progress reports to be shared. Whether their progress indicates all learning objectives have been reached or not, it is the teacher's job to provide them with feedback and support. Many online assessment assessments are a reflection of the progress that has been made. Some students may not have reached all objectives.

Following the online assessment, students are given a list of their results. They are then given a list of the results. It is the teacher's job to provide feedback on the results. The teacher should be able to provide feedback on the results. The teacher should be able to provide feedback on the results. The teacher should be able to provide feedback on the results.
