Handbook of Research on Value Creation for Small and Micro Social Enterprises Maher, Chi, 2018-12-07 In the corporate world businesses are focused on increasing their revenues but ignore the cries of social and environmental concerns from nearby communities At the other end of the spectrum nonprofits seek to help their local communities but are constantly required to create fundraisers without having adequate time to put those collected donations to use The world needs an industry to combine civic engagement and public service with wealth and value creation to provide self sustaining opportunities for public services that are sometimes overlooked or ignored The Handbook of Research on Value Creation for Small and Micro Social Enterprises defines the concept of social enterprise and provides vital insight into the importance of rebalancing creating and promoting economic activities that achieve social fairness cultural fulfillment and the protection of the environment While highlighting topics such as marketing strategies cross cultural frameworks and public policy this publication focuses on empowering rather than controlling sustainable solutions for various communities and consumers This book is ideally designed for researchers policymakers academicians who teach and or research small and micro social enterprises and advanced level students furthering their research exposure to pertinent topics in this field The Best Interests Assessor Practice Handbook Rachel Hubbard, Kevin Stone, 2022-10-25 The Best Interests Assessor BIA Practice Handbook is firmly grounded in real life practice and remains the only textbook focusing directly on the BIA role Offering clear and practical advice on the legal elements of the role and the values and practice elements of working within the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards DoLS framework this is essential reading for BIA students and practitioners This fully updated edition takes account of recent legislative changes including the planned changes from the Liberty Protection Safeguards LPS recent case law and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on BIA practice Packed with advice on delivering effective person centred rights driven practice it includes case studies legal summaries decision making activities CPD support examples of new case law in practice Looking forward the book considers the new context for practice in the Approved Mental Capacity Professional AMCP role within the LPS and the potential roles that BIAs might fulfil in this new framework in the future Handbook on Society and Social Policy Nicholas Ellison, Tina Haux, 2020-07-31 This comprehensive Handbook provides a unique overview of the key issues and challenges facing society and social policy in the twenty first century discussing how welfare is conceptualised organised and delivered in contemporary global society Chapters engage with specific areas of social policy as well as with the social divisions and institutional infrastructures that underpin them The Handbook also considers how social policy should respond to the challenges posed by austerity human migration and the climate crisis Handbook of Family Policies Across the Globe Mihaela Robila, 2013-06-19 Family policy holds a particular status in the quest for a more equitable world as it intersects the rights of women children and workers But despite local and global efforts and initiatives the state of family policy in different areas of the world varies widely

Through a cross section of countries on six continents Family Policies Across the Globe offers the current state of the laws concerning family life structure and services providing historical cultural and socioeconomic context. Lucidly written chapters analyze key aspects of family definition marriage child well being work family balance and family assistance reviewing underlying social issues and controversies as they exist in each country. Details of challenges to implementation and methods of evaluating policy outcomes bring practical realities into sharp focus and each chapter concludes with recommendations for improvement at the research service and governmental levels. The result is an important comparative look at how governments support families and how societies perceive themselves as they evolve. Among the issues covered: Sierra Leone toward sustainable family policies; Russia folkways versus state ways; Japan policy responses to a declining population; Australia reform revolutions and lingering effects; Canada a patchwork policy; Colombia a focus on policies for vulnerable families. Researchers professors and graduate students in the fields of social policy child and family studies psychology sociology and social work will find in Family Policies Across the Globe a reference that will grow in importance as world events continue to develop.

The Activist's Handbook Randy Shaw, 2013-08-26. The Activist's Handbook: Winning Social Change in the 21st Century details the impact of specific strategies on campaigns across the country from Occupy Wall Street to battles over sweatshops the environment AIDS policies education reform homelessness and more. How should activists use new media tools to expose issues and mobilize grassroots support? When should activists form coalitions and with whom? How are students like they DREAMers seeking immigration reform or college activists battling ever increasing tuition costs winning major campaigns? Whether it is by inspiring fear and loathing in politicians building diverse coalitions using ballot initiatives or harnessing the media the courts and the electoral process towards social change. Shaw a longtime activist for urban issues shows that with a plan positive change can be achieved. Century details the impact of specific strategies on campaigns across the country from Occupy Wall Street to battles over sweatshops the environment AIDS policies education reform homelessness and more.
