Personal Narrative Prompts About Immigration:

Personal narratives of Irish and Scottish migration, 1921-65 Angela McCarthy, 2017-10-03 Between 1921 and 1965 Irish and Scottish migrants continued to seek new homes abroad Using the personal accounts of these migrants from letters interviews questionnaires and shipboard journals together with more traditional documentary sources such as immigration files and maritime records this book examines the experience of migration and settlement in North America and Australasia Through a close reading of personal testimonies the author highlights the assorted similarities and differences between the Irish and Scots Subtle differences rather than yawning cultural gaps are apparent similarities in attitude and expectation are more common than divergent or unique experiences The key revelation of the work is that despite a number of peculiarities characterising their individual and collective experiences of migration both the Irish and Scots were relatively successful migrants in the period under consideration Using interviews both spoken and written and tackling issues of why and how versions of the past are represented and what they mean this fascinating study considers individual and collective memory and the use of personal testimonies as historical evidence their uniqueness and typicality Furthermore in using personal narratives the book portrays individual migration experiences which are often hidden in studies based on statistical analysis

Migration and Identity through Creative Writing Alka Kumar, Anna Triandafyllidou, 2023-10-03 This open access book brings together storytelling and self narrative creative writing and narrative enquiry to explore a variety of topics in migration from an experiential lens The volume is hybrid and multi genre as it contains both scholarly chapters grounded in academic perspectives as well as personal essays and creative non fiction In addition to critical reflections on key migration topics and concepts like identity and diversity integration and agency transnationalism and return the scholarly chapters also propose a particular methodology for workshopping migration narratives and writing about personal lived experiences through iterations of scientific reflection narrative enquiry and creative imagination The book explores the potential of a new conceptual paradigm and methodological process to learn more and also differently about the migration experience Finally this volume asks a bigger question too how do we define the boundaries of research is it possible to entirely separate the spatial temporal and methodological parameters in which projects are developed and pursued and how can the specifics of these multiple contexts contribute to shaping the knowledge being produced Immigration: Views and Reflections.

library     Migrant Aesthetics Glenda R. Carpio, 2023-10-31 Co winner 2024 Matei Calinescu Prize Modern Language Association By most accounts immigrant literature deals primarily with how immigrants struggle to adapt to their adopted countries Its readers have come to expect stories of identity formation of how immigrants create ethnic communities and maintain ties to countries of origin Yet such narratives can center exceptional stories of individual success or obscure the political forces that uproot millions of people the world over Glenda R Carpio argues that we need a new paradigm for migrant fiction Migrant Aesthetics shows how contemporary authors Teju Cole Dinaw Mengestu Aleksandar Hemon Valeria Luiselli Julie Otsuka and Junot Diaz expose the historical legacies and political injustices that produce forced migration through artistic innovation Their fiction rejects the generic features of immigrant literature especially the acculturation plot and the use of migrant narrators as cultural guides who must appeal to readerly empathy They emphasize the limits of empathy insisting instead that readers recognize their own roles in the realities of migration which like climate change is driven by global inequalities Carpio traces how these authors create literary echoes of the past showing how the history of neo colonialism links distinct immigrant experiences and can lay the foundation for cross ethnic migrant solidarity Revealing how migration shapes and is shaped by language and narrative Migrant Aesthetics casts fiction as vital testimony to past and present colonial imperial and structural displacement and violence     Immigrant Experiences Paul H. Elovitz, Charlotte Kahn, 1997 This book gives powerful testimony to the possibilities of success even as it attests to the psychological costs of emigration and the struggles of immigration The necessity of creating a new cultural or national identity is a recurring theme as the authors of articles immigrants themselves and Americans sensitive to their families immigrant experiences address what has become an urgent question How can we facilitate the immigrants passage The U S culture has been forged by the influence of immigrant cultures too numerous to mention their representatives have made recognizable significant contributions while struggling to create a viable place for themselves in their adopted land     Adult Language Education and Migration James Simpson, Anne Whiteside, 2015-03-27 Adult Language Education and Migration Challenging Agendas in Policy and Practice provides a lively and critical examination of policy and practice in language education for adult migrants around the world showing how opportunities for learning the language of a new country both shape and are shaped by policy moves Language policies for migrants are often controversial and hotly contested but at the same time innovative teaching practices are emerging in response to the language learning needs of today s mobile populations This book analyses and challenges language education policies relating to adult migrants in nine countries provides a comparative study with separate chapters on policy and practice in each country focuses on Australia Canada Spain Catalonia Finland France Ireland the Netherlands the UK and the US Adult Language Education and Migration is essential reading for practitioners students and researchers working in the area of language education in migration contexts     Writing Elena L. Grigorenko, Elisa Mambrino, David D. Preiss, 2012-05-04 This book captures the diversity and richness of writing as it relates to different forms of abilities skills competencies and expertise Psychologists educators researchers and practitioners in neighboring areas are interested in exploring how writing develops and in what manner this development can be fostered but they lack a handy unified and comprehensive source of information to satisfy their interest The goal of this book is to fill this void by reflecting on the phenomenon of writing from a developmental perspective It contains an integrated set of chapters devoted to issues of writing how writing develops how it is and should be taught and how writing paths of development differ across writing genres Specifically the book addresses typologies of writing pathways of the development of writing skills stages of the development of writing individual differences in the acquisition of writing skills writing ability and disability teaching writing and the development and demonstration of expertise in writing     A Century of Negro Migration Carter Godwin

Woodson,2019-12-04 In A Century of Negro Migration Carter Godwin Woodson provides a comprehensive analysis of the migration patterns of African Americans from the rural South to urban centers in the North and West during the 20th century Woodson employs a meticulous historical approach blending narrative with statistical evidence to illuminate the social economic and cultural factors driving this mass movement Utilizing a rich array of primary sources he scrutinizes the implications of migration on both the African American community and the broader American society positioning the work within the larger context of the Great Migration and the racial dynamics of the era Carter Godwin Woodson often referred to as the Father of Black History founded the Association for the Study of African American Life and History His scholarly pursuits were deeply influenced by his own experiences as a son of former slaves and his commitment to uncovering and promoting African American contributions to history Woodson s advocacy for understanding the African American experience through rigorous scholarship fueled his desire to address the neglect of this vital aspect of American history culminating in this seminal work This book is essential for anyone wishing to grasp the complexities of African American history and the socio economic transformations that shaped modern America Woodson s insightful observations and compelling arguments not only educate but also challenge readers to reflect on the ongoing impact of migration and resilience within the African American narrative
