Augustine on Prayer Thomas A. Hand,1986 Prayer is a subject that is of vital interest to Christians of all ages We are constantly asking questions such as What is prayer Why should we pray For what and for whom should we pray How should we pray The author provides answers to these and many other questions from the thought of a master of prayer Saint Augustine of Hippo over 500 Augustinian texts about prayer woven into a little summa about how to improve one s prayer life

Prayer After Augustine Jonathan D. Teubner,2018 The influence of the theology and philosophy of Augustine of Hippo on subsequent Western thought and culture is undisputed Prayer after Augustine A Study in the Development of the Latin Tradition argues that the notion of the Augustinian tradition needs to be re thought and that already in the generation after Augustine in the West such a re thinking is already and richly manifest in more than one influential form In this work Jonathan D Teubner encourages philosophical moral and historical theologians to think about what it might mean that the Augustinian tradition formed in a distinctively Augustinian fashion and considers how this affects how they use discuss and evaluate Augustine in their work This is exemplified by Augustine s reflections on prayer and how they were taken up modified and handed on by Boethius and Benedict two critically influential figures for the development of Latin medieval philosophical and theological cultures Teubner analyses and exemplifies the particular theme of prayer and the other topics it constellates in Augustine and to show how it already forms a distinctively Augustinian concept of tradition that was to prove to have fascinatingly diverse manifestations Part I traces the development of Augustine's understanding of prayer Patience and hope as articulated in prayer sit at the centre of Augustine's understanding of Christian existence In Part II Teubner turns to suggest how this is picked up by Boethius and Benedict      Prayers to St. Augustine of Hippo John M.

 purpose of this thesis is to explain the moral content of the Confessions of St Augustine Accordingly other works of the Saint as well as commentators on the Confessions will be used solely to clarify the main moral tenets of this work Since moral principles moreover are found not merely in the expressed ideas of St Augustine but are also embodied in his actions moral principles will be gleaned and illustrated from both sources When moreover the Confessions consider man they view him in the same theocentric fashion in his relationship to God and so reaffirm frequently that the happiness of man is inseparably by the sacrifice of Christ the theory that the human will is able to earn salvation of its own accord was the basis of Pelagian thought Augustine in this series of works fought vehemently against such ways of thinking because he wanted to make the illustrious church father's complex interaction with his most important non biblical source comes into focus In order to
