Private Foundations Bruce R. Hopkins, Jody Blazek, 2004-03-01 Private foundations are a special niche of the nonprofit sector. They are allowed to remain relatively tax exempt in exchange for supporting charitable activities. There are more than 50,000 and growing private foundations in the United States holding assets worth more than 230 billion. Private foundations are subject to a unique and complex set of mostly tax regulations that govern everything from how much money they give away to their investment policies and procedures. This much needed annually updated manual explicates a wide range of tax rules and regulations for these foundations and prepares them for the increasing scrutiny of the IRS. Co-authored by a lawyer and tax accountant, the revised and expanded second edition of this highly respected guide includes practical tax compliance suggestions and in depth legal explanations, line by line instructions, sample filled IRS forms and complete citations. The "How To" Grants Manual David G. Bauer, 2015-03-17 This book breaks down the sometimes overwhelming and difficult task of creating a successful grant winning proposal into a series of clear and definable steps that lead to grant success. The implementation of these proactive grant steps results in government foundation and corporate grants success. Whether you are with a nonprofit organization, a school district or an institution of higher education, this step by step process will demystify the grants process and help you become a confident and knowledgeable grantseeker. Researching the grantor, reviewing previously funded proposals and making pre proposal contact with the funding source are just a few of the proactive steps that will help to assure you that what you propose is right for the grantor and that the grantor should therefore select you to fund. The exhibits, worksheets in The How To Grants Manual further support this successful system. Revisions to grant seeking strategies have caused the author, working with grantors and advisory groups, to retool the manual's worksheets and communications templates. These extremely useful supplementary materials are available to students and instructors. Contact textbooksrowman.com for details. If your organization or institution wants to increase your success in attracting grants, this book is for you. From operating grants to technology to research, this book will help you outline your plan for success. Jewish Giving Jack Wertheimer, 2025-07-22 Evaluating Jewish donors over time. The American Jewish philanthropic enterprise is unparalleled in scope, dynamism and the diversity of funders and the causes they support. Yet even as Jewish giving has been largely successful in responding with alacrity to emergencies, it has been subjected to severe criticism. What once was regarded as a point of pride has become the object of scorn and dismissal with skepticism, if not harsh criticism about its work, rife both within and outside Jewish communal circles. Based on 320 interviews with professionals at Jewish not-for-profits across the United States, principals of foundations and their top staff, personnel and also tax filings of major foundations, Jewish Giving provides readers with fresh perspectives to evaluate the efforts of Jewish donors, large and small. The book traces the evolution of Jewish giving from the colonial era to the present, charting the changing profile of those who give to Jewish causes and what funders have aimed to achieve through their largesse. It makes the case that philanthropy serves as a prism through which broader themes in communal life are illuminated As society or politics change the priorities of charitable giving adjust in response These changes in targeted funding can help to sharpen our understanding of demographic and social patterns Devoting much attention to twenty first century developments in contemporary Jewish giving the book pays special attention to the changing landscape of donors who are remaking Jewish philanthropy including women Orthodox Jews Sephardi givers and young funders
