Organizing and Managing the Language Arts Block Lesley Mandel Morrow, 2003-01-01. This book offers essential guidance to preservice and inservice teachers seeking to create, revise, or add new strategies to the teaching of the language arts block. The focus is on how to implement effective strategies in the context of a well-planned classroom and a smoothly choreographed daily schedule. In a series of vivid case studies, Lesley Mandel Morrow brings to life the methods used by exemplary teachers to create rich, student-friendly learning environments for children in grades K-4. No component of organizing the language arts block is omitted, including setting up and running classroom learning centers, assessing different instructional needs, conducting whole-class and small-group meetings, and linking language arts to content-area instruction. Enhancing the practical utility of the book are sample daily schedules and classroom management tips for each grade level, along with dozens of reproducible learning activities, lesson plans and assessment and record keeping tools Integrating Literacy and Math Ellen Fogelberg, Carole Skalinder, Patti Satz, Barbara Hiller, Lisa Bernstein, Sandra Vitantonio, 2013-10-15 Many K 6 teachers and students still think of mathematics as a totally separate subject from literacy Yet incorporating math content into the language arts block helps students gain skills for reading many kinds of texts And bringing reading writing and talking into the math classroom supports the development of conceptual knowledge and problem solving in addition to computational skills This invaluable book thoroughly explains integrated instruction and gives teachers the tools to make it a reality Grounded in current best practices for both language arts and math the book includes planning advice learning activities assessment strategies reproducibles and resources plus a wealth of examples from actual classrooms Best Ideas for Teaching with
