

(b) Give reasons for the following :

- (i) Photosynthesis is considered as a process supporting all life on earth.
- (ii) A matured mammalian erythrocyte lacks nucleus and mitochondria.
- (iii) Potato cubes when placed in water become firm and increase in size.
- (iv) Urine is slightly thicker in summer than in winter.
- (v) People living in hilly regions usually suffer from simple goitre.

[5]

Answer :

(a) (i) Cortex

- (ii) 1—Afferent arteriole
3—Bowman's capsule.

2—Glomerulus

4—Efferent arteriole

(iii) Ultrafiltration

Selective reabsorption

Tubular secretion

(iv) Ultrafiltration.

Blood rich in nitrogenous waste and excess water enters Bowmans Capsule through a wider afferent arteriole then splits into fine capillaries called glomerulus due to which a hydrostatic pressure is created. This pressure leads to filtration of water with nitrogenous wastes.

(b) (i) Photosynthesis process leads to release of oxygen which is essential for all life on earth. It also produces food for all heterotrophs.

(ii) Lack of nucleus helps in having more surface area for absorption and transport of oxygen.

Lack of mitochondria helps in the way that RBC would not consume any oxygen that it is transporting.

(iii) Water is a hypotonic medium, so endosmosis occurs due to which water enters into potato cells making them firm and larger in size i.e., making them turgid.

(iv) In summer, body loses large amount of water by perspiration or direct evaporation. So blood is order to maintain its osmotic concentration reabsorbs large amount of water from the tubules of Nephron due to which there is less water left to be released as urine. So urine becomes thicker whereas in winter, there is less reabsorption. So thin urine is passed.

(v) In hilly areas there is scarcity of iodine in the soil and in their diet. Deficiency of iodine leads to simple goitre.

International Handbook on Teaching and Learning Economics Gail Mitchell Hoyt, Kim Marie McGoldrick, 2012 The International Handbook on Teaching and Learning Economics is a power packed resource for anyone interested in investing time into the effective improvement of their personal teaching methods and for those who desire to teach students how to think like an economist. It sets guidelines for the successful integration of economics into a wide variety of traditional and non traditional settings in college and graduate courses with some attention paid to primary and secondary classrooms. The International Handbook on Teaching and Learning Economics is highly recommended for all economics instructors and individuals supporting economic education in courses in and outside of the major. This Handbook provides a multitude of rich resources that make it easy for new and veteran instructors to improve their instruction in ways promising to excite an increasing number of students about learning economics. This Handbook should be on every instructor's desk and referenced regularly. Tawni Hunt Ferrarini, The American Economist. In delightfully readable short chapters by leaders in the sub fields who are also committed teachers, this encyclopedia of how and what in teaching economics covers everything. There is nothing else like it and it should be required reading for anyone starting a teaching career and for anyone who has been teaching for fewer than 50 years. Daniel S. Hamermesh, University of Texas at Austin, US. The International Handbook on Teaching and Learning Economics provides a comprehensive resource for instructors and researchers in economics, both new and experienced. This wide ranging collection is designed to enhance student learning by helping economic educators learn more about course content, pedagogic techniques, and the scholarship of the teaching enterprise. The internationally renowned contributors present an exhaustive compilation of accessible insights into major research in economic education across a wide range of topic areas, including Pedagogic practice, teaching techniques, technology use, assessment, contextual techniques, and K-12 practices. Research findings, principles, courses, measurement factors influencing student performance, evaluation, and the scholarship of teaching and learning. Institutional administrative issues, faculty development, the undergraduate and graduate student, and international perspectives. Teaching enhancement initiatives, foundations, organizations, and workshops. Grounded in research and covering past and present knowledge as well as future challenges, this detailed compendium of economics education will prove an invaluable reference tool for all involved in the teaching of economics: graduate students, new teachers, lecturers, faculty, researchers, chairs, deans, and directors.

Test Fraud Neal Kingston, Amy Clark, 2014-06-27. There has been an increase in awareness and perhaps occurrence of individual and organized cheating on tests. Recent reports of widespread problems with state student accountability tests and teacher certification testing have raised questions about the very validity of assessment programs. While there are several books that specifically detail the issues of test security, cheating on assessments, few outline the statistical procedures used for detecting various types of potential test fraud and the associated research findings. Without a significant research literature base, the new generation of researchers will have little opportunity or incentive to improve on existing methods. Enlisting a variety of experts and scholars in different fields of testing, this edited volume expands on the current literature base by including examples of detailed research findings arrived at by statistical methodology. It also provides a synthesis of the current state of the art with regard to the statistical detection of testing infidelity particularly for large scale assessments By presenting methods currently used by testing organizations and research on new methods the volume offers an important forum for expanding the literature in this area Education in South-East Asia Lorraine Pe Symaco,2013-02-14 Education in South East Asia is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in South East Asia With chapters written by an international team of leading regional education experts the book explores the education systems of Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Lao PDR Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor Leste and Vietnam The diverse range and forms of culture religion and politics embedded in the region are exhibited in the distinctive education systems that inter relate in one of the most integrated regions in the world Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole and guides to available online datasets this Handbook will be an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers at all levels Pakistan's Blasphemy Laws Shemeem Burney Abbas,2013-07-01 Under the guise of Islamic law the prophet Muhammad s Islam and the Qur an states such as Pakistan Afghanistan Egypt Saudi Arabia and Bangladesh are using blasphemy laws to suppress freedom of speech Yet the Prophet never tried or executed anyone for blasphemy nor does the Qur an authorize the practice Asserting that blasphemy laws are neither Islamic nor Qur anic Shemeem Burney Abbas traces the evolution of these laws from the Islamic empires that followed the death of the Prophet Muhammad to the present day Taliban Her pathfinding study on the shari a and gender demonstrates that Pakistan s blasphemy laws are the inventions of a military state that manipulates discourse in the name of Islam to exclude minorities women free thinkers and even children from the rights of citizenship Abbas herself was persecuted under Pakistan s blasphemy laws so she writes from both personal experience and years of scholarly study Her analysis exposes the questionable motives behind Pakistan s blasphemy laws which were resurrected during General Zia ul Haq s regime of 1977 1988 motives that encompassed gaining geopolitical control of the region including Afghanistan in order to weaken the Soviet Union Abbas argues that these laws created a state sponsored infidel ideology that now affects global security as militant groups such as the Taliban justify violence against all infidels who do not subscribe to their interpretation of Islam She builds a strong case for the suspension of Pakistan s blasphemy laws and for a return to the Prophet s peaceful vision of social justice How to Read Texts Neil McCaw,2013-09-26 Now in its second edition How to Read Texts introduces students to key critical approaches to literary texts and offers a practical introduction for students developing their own critical and close reading skills Written in a lively jargon free style it explains critical concepts approaches and ideas including Debates around critical theory The role of history and context The links between creativity and criticism The relationship between author reader and text The new edition now includes guidance on analysing a range of multi media texts including film and online media as well as the purely literary In addition to new practical examples readings exercises and checkpoints that help students to build confidence in their own critical readings of both primary and
