Research on the Nature of Mineral-Forming Solutions N. P. Yermakov, 2013-10-22 Research on the Nature of Mineral Forming Solutions is the first book on the subject of fluid inclusions This book contains observational data and studies of mineral forming solutions done in the Soviet Union The description and natural classification of inclusion in minerals according to their composition and state are discussed Gaseous liquefied and solidified inclusions that are found in minerals and their significance are considered important in determining the presence and availability of the mineral For example any earlier or contemporaneous minerals that are found only in their host crystals can be determined by analyzing the presence of solid inclusions The origin and genetic classifications of liquid and gaseous inclusions being both abundant in hypogene ore deposits are explained Other less common methods in the study of inclusions besides homogenization of inclusions by heating under the microscope are forwarded The authors believe that exact measurements of the homogenization temperature are possible and therefore can serve as a precise indicator in understanding the process of formation of individual crystals and hydrothermal deposits Other studies of the All Union Research Institute of Piezo optical Mineral Raw Materials are also discussed This collection of monographs will prove invaluable to mineralogists geologists and research chemists studying minerals and ore deposits A Laboratory Manual in General Chemistry William Foster,1923

Characterization of Tetragonal (rutile) GeO₂ Crystals John W. Goodrum,1971 The use of germanium in semiconductor devices continues in importance but adequate substrate materials and or passivating insulating films for Ge are still lacking Although such properties of the tetragonal oxide of germanium as chemical inertness and low electrical conductivity indicate it would be an excellent substrate passivating material for Ge semiconductor devices various attempts to prepare this oxide have met with only limited success Albers Valyocsik and Mohan 1966 Carasso and Faktor 1965 Wilkes 1964 This report describes a preparation method for this oxide as well as some previously unreported characteristics of the material Author
