A Synthesis of Research on Second Language Writing in English Ilona Leki, Alister Cumming, Tony Silva, 2010-04-15 I applaud the authors for this sizeable undertaking as well as the care exercised in selecting and sequencing topics and subtopics A major strength and salient feature of this volume is its range It will serve as a key reference tool for researchers working in L2 composition and in allied fields John Hedgcock Monterey Institute for International Studies Synthesizing twenty five years of the most significant and influential findings of published research on second language writing in English this volume promotes understanding and provides access to research developments in the field Overall it distinguishes the major contexts of English L2 learning in North America synthesizes the research themes issues and findings that span these contexts and interprets the methodological progression and substantive findings of this body of knowledge Of particular interest is the extensive bibliography which makes this volume an essential reference tool for libraries and serious writing professionals both researchers and practitioners both L1 and L2 This book is designed to allow researchers to become familiar with the most important research on this topic to promote understanding of pedagogical needs of L2 writing students and to introduce graduate students to L2 writing research findings

Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing Greg Giberson, Megan Schoen, Christian Weisser, 2022-06-15 Until now there has been little consideration of the intellectual and historical impact editors have had on the young and ever evolving field of writing studies Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing provides new and seasoned scholars with behind the scenes explorations and expositions of the history of scholarly editing and the role of the scholarly editor from the perspectives of current and former editors from important publications within the field Each chapter in the collection examines the unique experiences and individual contributions of its authors during their time as editors offering advice to scholars and potential editors on how to navigate the publication process and understand editorial roles The contributors provide multiple perspectives on the growth transformation and in some cases founding of some of the most influential publishing venues in writing studies The personal and historical narratives along with the unique perspectives and insightful analyses of the individual authors in Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing offer needed transparency and context to what has historically been an opaque yet inevitable and consequential part of academic life This volume will help researchers in the field understand the publishing process Contributors Cheryl Ball David Bartholomae Charles Bazerman Jean Ferguson Carr Douglas Eyman Muriel Harris Byron Hawk Alice Horning Paul Kei Matsuda Laura Micciche Mike Palmquist Michael Pemberton Malea Powell Kelly Ritter Victor

Villanueva Victor Vitanza Kathleen Blake Yancey Developing International EFL/ESL Scholarly Writers Donna Bain Butler, 2015-03-30 This study had a research purpose and a pedagogical purpose Research disclosed the dynamic changing nature of learner internal and learner external variables that influence strategic competence for developing EFL ESL writers This competence was found necessary for international graduate students to move from writer centered learning to reader centered communication The research instruments proved to be practical tools for guiding learners processes of learning and writing a scholarly paper or article and avoiding plagiarism The implication for teachers and program administrators is a systematic approach for developing self regulation control in EFL ESL writing The first part of the book reports on the mixed methods quantitative and qualitative research The second part gives an in depth report of the 6 cases used in the research The third part presents tools for systematically developing self regulation in scholarly and academic writing with a student and teacher checklists for formative assessment that are valid and reliable and b a model syllabus for teachers that can be adapted across disciplines and genres These tools deal with learning strategies and their applications to writing and writing instruction Chinese-Heritage Students in North American Schools Wen Ma, Guofang Li, 2016-03-02 This comprehensive look at Chinese heritage students academic sociocultural and emotional development in the public schools examines pertinent educational theories complex even inconvenient realities learning practices in and outside of schools and social cultural and linguistic complications in their academic lives across diverse settings homes and communities Chinese heritage students are by far the largest ethnic group among Asian American and Asian Canadian communities but it is difficult to sort out their academic performance because NAEP and most state province databases lump all Asian students results together To better understand why Chinese heritage learners range from academic role models to problematic students in need of help it is important to understand their hearts and minds beyond test scores This book is distinctive in building this understanding by addressing the range of issues related to Chinese heritage K 12 students languages cultures identities academic achievements and challenges across North American schools One-on-One Language Teaching and Learning T. Bleistein, M. Lewis, 2014-11-25 With only one learner it is possible for the teacher to give serious attention to principles of second language acquisition such as motivation error treatment and learner autonomy which are more difficult to address in classroom learning This book combines theory with practical suggestions making it invaluable for language tutors Transnational Writing Program Administration David S. Martins, 2015-03-15 While local conditions remain at the forefront of writing program administration transnational activities are slowly and thoroughly shifting the questions we ask about writing curricula the space and place in which writing happens and the cultural and linguistic issues at the heart of the relationships forged in literacy work Transnational Writing Program Administration challenges taken for granted assumptions regarding program identity curriculum and pedagogical effectiveness logistics and quality assurance faculty and student demographics innovative partnerships and research and the infrastructure needed to support writing instruction in higher education Well known scholars and new voices in the field extend the theoretical underpinnings of writing program administration to consider programs activities and institutions involving students and faculty from two or more countries working together and highlight the situated practices of such efforts The collection brings translingual graduate students at the forefront of writing studies together with established administrators teachers and researchers and intends to enrich the efforts of WPAs by examining the practices and theories that impact our ability to conceive of writing program administration as transnational This collection will enable writing program administrators to take the emerging locations of writing instruction seriously to address the role of language difference in writing and to engage critically with the key notions and approaches to writing program administration that reveal its transnationality The ELL Writer Christina
