The Autobiography of Philosophy Michael Davis,2000-01-01 This is the most important book about the nature of philosophy and of the human soul published this year In making the condition for its own possibility its deepest concern philosophy is necessarily about itself it is autobiographical The first part of The Autobiography of Philosophy interprets Heidegger s Being and Time Nietzsche s On the Genealogy of Morals Aristotle s Metaphysics and Plato s Lysis as examples of the implicitly autobiographical character of philosophy The second part is a reading of Rousseau s The Reveries of the Solitary Walker Although Rousseau s explicitly autobiographical writings are more often read for the tantalizing details of his rather eccentric life than for their philosophical import this work is an artful use of Rousseau s exile and isolation the strangest position in which a mortal could ever find himself as a paradigm for the human soul in its relation to the world In powerfully articulating the activity that is at the core of all philosophy The Reveries articulates the nature of the human soul for which this activity is the defining possibility The Routledge Companion to Death and Literature W. Michelle Wang, Daniel Jernigan, Neil Murphy, 2020-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Death and Literature seeks to understand the ways in which literature has engaged deeply with the ever evolving relationship humanity has with its ultimate demise It is the most comprehensive collection in this growing field of study and includes essays by Brian McHale Catherine Belling Ronald Schleifer Helen Swift and Ira Nadel as well as the work of a generation of younger scholars from around the globe who bring valuable transnational insights Encompassing a diverse range of mediums and genres including biography and autobiography documentary drama elegy film the novel and graphic novel opera picturebooks poetry television and more the contributors offer a dynamic mix of approaches that range from expansive perspectives on particular periods and genres to extended analyses of select case studies Essays are included from every major Western period including Classical Middle Ages Renaissance and so on right up to the contemporary This collection provides a telling demonstration of the myriad ways that humanity has learned to live with the inevitability of death where live with itself might mean any number of things from consoling to memorializing to rationalizing to fending off to evading and perhaps most compellingly of all to escaping Engagingly written and drawing on examples from around the world this volume is indispensable to both students and scholars working in the fields of medical humanities thanatology death studies life writing Victorian studies modernist studies narrative contemporary fiction popular culture and more

when faith in progress is broken when both the sovereign individual and sovereign states seem tenuous when desire seems as likely to seek punishment as freedom when all political conviction is revealed as contingent and subjective Politics Out of History is animated by the question of how we navigate the contemporary political landscape when the traditional compass points of modernity have all but disappeared Wendy Brown diagnoses a range of contemporary political tendencies from moralistic high handedness to low lying political despair in politics from the difficulty of formulating political alternatives to reproaches against theory in intellectual life as the consequence of this disorientation Politics Out of History also presents a provocative argument for a new approach to thinking about history one that forsakes the idea that history has a purpose and treats it instead as a way of illuminating openings in the present by for example identifying the haunting and constraining effects of past injustices unresolved Brown also argues for a revitalized relationship between intellectual and political life one that cultivates the autonomy of each while promoting their interlocutory potential This book will be essential reading for all who find the trajectories of contemporary liberal democracies bewildering and are willing to engage readings of a range of thinkers Freud Marx Nietzsche Spinoza Benjamin Derrida to rethink democratic possibility in our time In Search of an Identity Edward Vickers,2004-03-01 This book traces the influences that have shaped the secondary school history curriculum during Hong Kong s prolonged political transition between the 1960s and the early 21st century focusing especially on the relationship between history teaching and identity formation The author s experience as a local history teacher during the mid 1990s made him conscious of the peculiarities of the history curriculum at the time in particular the neglect of Hong Kong s own history in both syllabuses and textbooks and the unique division between History and the entirely separate subject of Chinese History Ma: The Japanese Secret to Contemplation and Calm Ken Rodgers,John Einarsen,2025-10-28 Ma the emptiness in which time space and thoughts are suspended is an invitation to awareness The traditional Japanese concept of ma refers to a pause or a space the moment of no action the stillness and silence that is filled with more powerful energy than the moments of action on the classic Noh stage It also refers to the pauses taken in between notes by a shakuhachi flute player or the spaces between stones in a Zen garden which reveal unexpected vistas and perspectives The eighteen thought provoking essays in this book present the work of talented writers and artists with vast experience in the fields of Japanese art religion music and philosophy They show us how the experience of ma in the traditional Zen arts and practices can be used to create a greater awareness of our surroundings to vastly improve our lives in many other areas Highlights include The Unspoken Space We Share by Pico Iyer who reflects on our word choice the way we speak to each other and the pauses in our everyday conversations Some Gravel Some Stones by Steven Mansfield who explores deliberate spaces in Japanese garden design and how these provide us with moments of calm Photographic Ma by Robert van Koesveld who draws our attention to the mysterious communicative power of spaces in photographic compositions that draw us in on a subconscious level Between Form and Emptiness an interview with artist Miya Ando whose work in metal canvas and sculpture is deeply rooted in Zen Buddhist philosophy and reflects the human experience of time the seasons and ephemerality Moments of Silence and Stillness by Magda Rittenhouse whose explorations of traditional Japanese design focus on the spaces between inside and outside sacred and profane the safe and the unfamiliar Plus thirteen other fascinating essays Illustrated with 80 stunning photographs this book will appeal not just to those with an interest in Japanese culture and philosophy but to anyone seeking to escape the stresses and challenges of daily life and develop a more balanced meditative approach to the world L. M. Montgomery's Emily of New Moon Yan Du, Joe Sutliff

Sanders, 2024-04-23 Contributions by Yoshiko Akamatsu Carol L Beran Rita Bode Lesley D Clement Allison McBain Hudson Kate Lawson Jessica Wen Hui Lim Lindsey McMaster E Holly Pike Katharine Slater Margaret Steffler and Anastasia Ulanowicz Lucy Maud Montgomery 1874 1942 was a Canadian author best known for writing the wildly popular Anne of Green Gables At the time of its publication in 1908 it was an immediate bestseller and launched Montgomery to fame Less known than the dreamy and accidentally mischievous Anne Shirley is Emily Byrd Starr the title character in the trilogy that followed much later in Montgomery's professional career Emily of New Moon Published in 1923 Emily of New Moon is the first in a series of novels about an orphan girl growing up on Prince Edward Island a story that mirrors Anne's but intentionally resists many of the defining qualities of Montgomery's most famous creation Despite being overshadowed by the immense popularity of Anne of Green Gables the Emily of New Moon trilogy has become a subject of endless fascination to fans and scholars around the world The trilogy was conceived during an important phase in Montgomery's career during which she turned from Anne and plunged into more intricate aspects of gender adolescence nature and authorship While the novels have attracted rich critical attention since their publication book length studies proved surprisingly scarce L M Montgomery's Emily of New Moon A Children's Classic at 100 is the first scholarly volume exclusively dedicated to the trilogy coalescing different research perspectives It offers a fresh point of entrance into a well loved classic at its one hundredth anniversary Understanding Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 1999 This book provides an introduction to some of the critical theories useful in the study of children's literature The 14 chapters examine the context application and relevance to this area of concepts such as feminism ideology psychoanalysis and literacy studies Things with a History Héctor Hoyos, 2019-10-29 Can rubber trees silicone dolls corpses soil subatomic particles designer shoes and discarded computers become the protagonists of contemporary literature and what does this tell us about the relationship between humans and objects In Things with a History Héctor Hoyos argues that the roles of objects in recent Latin American fiction offer a way to integrate materialisms old and new transforming our understanding of how things shape social and political relations Discussing contemporary authors including Roberto Bolaño Ariel Magnus César Aira and Blanca Wieth Chtr as well as classic writers such as Fernando Ortiz and Jos Eustasio Rivera Hoyos considers how Latin American literature has cast things as repositories of history with an emphasis on the radically transformed circulation of artifacts under globalization He

traces a tradition of thought transcultural materialism that draws from the capacity of literary language to defamiliarize our place within the tangible world Hoyos contrasts new materialisms with historical materialist approaches exposing how recent tendencies sometimes sidestep concepts such as primitive accumulation commodity fetishism and conspicuous consumption which have been central to Latin American history and literature He contends that an integrative approach informed by both historical and new materialisms can balance seeing things as a means to reveal the true nature of social relations with appraisals of things in their autonomy Things with a History simultaneously offers a sweeping account of the material turn in recent Latin American culture and reinvigorates social theory and cultural critique
