Seduction S Game:

Film as a Medium of Seduction Marcus Stiglegger, 2024-03-14 The seduction theory defines film in a broader sense as a medium of seduction based on the French concept of seduction. It is a theoretical approach influenced by continental philosophy and classical film theory linked to a three stage analytical model. The book introduces the theoretical foundations and using various classical and contemporary examples from film history presents a genuine method of film analysis. Body Show/s, 2021-07-26 Body Show/s Australian Viewings of Live Performance asks in what ways do physical bodies in live performance present vital and compelling expressions of ideas. This collection contains critical analyses of cultural spectacle and social identity by eighteen major Australian scholars and practitioners. It discusses and describes bodies in contemporary performance theatre visual art and dance in circus and ethnographic shows in performance training butoh and wrestling at gay and lesbian dance parties and in relation to digital images. It explores historical and theoretical issues of gender and postcoloniality technology and the location of bodies in architectural social and virtual spaces. Artistes and groups discussed include Sydney Front Open City The Performance Space Meryl Tankard's Australian Dance Theatre Chrissie Parrott the Bell Shakespeare Company Tess De Quincey Yumi Umiu Mare Gilgul Theatre Lyndal Jones Stelarc Death Defying Theatre colonial circus ethnographic displays the horse as performer and wrestling legends Gorgeous George and Ravishing Ricky Rude.

Modes of Seduction Deborah Houk Schocket, 2005 Through its examination of Balzac's and Sand's representations of seduction from the perspectives of feminism psycho analysis and cultural studies this book sheds lights on erotic relations and the ways in which they are embedded in wider issues of subjectivity and political and social structures. Literary Seductions Frances Wilson, 2025-10-16 We have all surrendered ourselves to the world that writing creates. Eudora Welty once observed that her mother read the works of Charles Dickens in the same spirit with which she would have eloped with him. Some of us remember our first novel with more pleasurable vividness than our first kiss. Many of us go to on line chat rooms looking for love with our keyboard. And most of us have tried to seduce with words reciting that Shakespeare sonnet or composing that Valentine's Day poem with tremulous hope. All writing seeks to ensnare the reader in its embrace. As Frances Wilson also proves in this engaging enlightening and provocative new book writing can also ensnare the writers themselves. Highlighting the lives and loves of celebrated literary couples Literary Seductions reveals the depth of their passion for language their own as well as their partner's. Taking as a point of departure the legendary courtship of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett a courtship conceived on the printed page Wilson explores how easily how seductively literary desire becomes sexual desire and vice versa. Literary seductions she writes are violent extreme and irreversible. Not all reading seduces not all writing inflames. But when they do what is written ceases to be merely an arrangement of symbols on a page. The word has been made flesh. Lady Caroline Lamb and Lord Byron Ana's Nin and Henry Miller Laura Riding and Robert Graves Osip and Nadzheda Mandelstam W B and Georgie Yeats were all in the grip of a compulsion for writing and reading enmeshed in words Miller called his relationship with Nin a literary fuck fest for Riding and Graves it took on the self destructive and self conscious melodrama of a Russian novel for the Mandelstams it was a life giving if self sacrificing bond in a precarious world for George and W B Yeats it offered sexual stimulus The couplings of verbs and nouns do more than precede coupling they comprise it Literary Seductions is itself a seductive book The elegant power of Wilson s arguments the rigor of her research and the delights of her prose enthrall the reader Here is intellectual engagement and readerly pleasure rolled into one

Sex and Death in Eighteenth-Century Literature Jolene Zigarovich, 2013-05-02 This book discusses sex and death in the eighteenth century an era that among other forms produced the Gothic novel commencing the prolific examination of the century's shifting attitudes toward death and uncovering literary moments in which sexuality and death often conjoined By bringing together various viewpoints and historical relations the volume contributes to an emerging field of study and provides new perspectives on the ways in which the century approached an increasingly modern sense of sexuality and mortality It not only provides part of the needed discussion of the relationship between sex death history and eighteenth century culture but is a forum in which the ideas of several well respected critics converge producing a breadth of knowledge and a diversity of perspectives and methodologies previously unseen As the contributors demonstrate eighteenth century anxieties over mortality the body the soul and the corpse inspired many writers of the time to both implicitly and explicitly embed mortality and sexuality within their works By depicting the necrophilic tendencies of libertines and rapacious villains the fetishizing of death and mourning by virtuous heroines or the fantasy of preserving the body these authors demonstrate not only the tragic results of sexual play but the persistent fantasy of necro erotica This book shows that within the eighteenth century culture of profound modern change underworkings of death and mourning are often eroticized that sex is often equated with death as punishment or loss of the self and that the sex death dialectic lies at the discursive center of normative conceptions of gender desire and social power

Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo,2022-01-24 In Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo offers a new theorization of cinematic feminine beauty by showing how mediated encounters with Chinese film and popular culture stars produce feelings of Chineseness To illustrate this Zuo uses the vulgar as an analytic to trace how racial gendered and cultural identity is imagined and produced through affect She frames the vulgar as a characteristic that is experienced through the Chinese concept of weidao or flavor in which bitter salty pungent sweet and sour performances of beauty produce non Western forms of sexualized and racialized femininity Analyzing contemporary film and media ranging from actress Gong Li s post Mao movies of the late 1980s and 1990s to Joan Chen s performance in Twin Peaks to Ali Wong s stand up comedy specials Zuo shows how vulgar beauty disrupts Western and colonial notions of beauty Vulgar beauty then becomes the taste of difference By demonstrating how Chinese feminine beauty becomes a cinematic invention invested in forms of affective racialization Zuo makes a critical reconsideration of aesthetic theory

Expanding and Restricting the Erotic ,2020-06-08 The current erotic landscape is contradictory While the West sees greater sexual and erotic freedom than ever there is also a movement to restrict the behaviour of various sexual minorities Expanding and Restricting the Erotic addresses the way in which the erotic has been constrained and freed both historically and at present Topics range from the troubling way in which the mainstream media represents the erotic to the concept of friends with benefits Other chapters explore female eroticism from contemporary female hip hop artists to Latin American women seeking to express their eroticism in the midst of sexual repression Medieval and Early Modern medical conceptions of the female body are explored as are ancient Greek erotic practices Finally the controversial area of teenage girls erotic representation is analysed cultural modes of expression e showing that control is the cultural logic of the 21st century The Seductions of Pilgrimage Michael A. Di Giovine, David Picard, 2016-03-09 The Seductions of Pilgrimage explores the simultaneously attractive and repellent beguiling and alluring forms of seduction in pilgrimage It focuses on the varied discursive imaginative and practical mechanisms of seduction that draw individual pilgrims to a pilgrimage site the objects places and paradigms that pilgrims leave behind as they embark on their hyper meaningful travel experience and the often unforeseen elements that lead pilgrims off their desired course Presenting the first comprehensive study of the role of seduction on individual pilgrims in the study of pilgrimage and tourism it will appeal to scholars of anthropology cultural geography tourism heritage and religious studies Rage, Power, and Aggression Robert A. Glick, Steven P. Roose, Steven T. Roose, 1993-01-01 Rage aggression and the will to power are significant human characteristics that have been relatively neglected in psychoanalytic literature In the past rage has been viewed as a response to threat or frustration aggression as an instinctual drive and the will to power as causing destructive and maladaptive behavior In this volume the authors probe these dimensions of human experience to show how they serve adaptive needs assuage anxiety protect against threat and foster maturation Forget Baudrillard? Chris Rojek, Professor Bryan S Turner, Bryan Turner, 2002-11-01 Without doubt Jean Baudrillard is one of the most important figures currently working in the area of sociology and cultural studies but his writings infuriate as many people as they intoxicate This collection provides a wide ranging measured assessment of Baudrillard's work The contributors examine Baudrillard's relation to consumption modernity postmodernity social theory feminism politics and culture They attempt to steer a clear course between the hype which Baudrillard himself has done much to generate and the solid value of his startling thoughts Baudrillard's ideas and style of expression provide a challenge to established academic ways of proceeding and thinking The book explores this challenge and speculates on the reason for the extreme responses to Baudrillard's work The appeal of Baudrillard's arguments is clearly discussed and his place in contemporary social theory is shrewdly assessed Baudrillard emerges as a chameleon figure but one who is obsessed with the central themes of style hypocrisy seduction simulation and fatality Although these themes abound in postmodern thought they are also evident in a certain strand of modernist thought one which embraces the writings of Baudelaire and Nietzsche Baudrillard's protestation is that he is not a postmodernist is taken seriously in this collection The balanced and accessible style of the contributions and the fairness and rigour of the assessments make this book of pressing interest to students of sociology philosophy and cultural studies
