The Making of Lawyers' Careers Robert L. Nelson, Bryant G. Garth, Ronit Dinovitzer, Joyce S. Sterling, David B. Wilkins, Meghan Dawe, Ethan Michelson, 2023-10-03 How do hierarchies of race class gender and law school status condition the career trajectories of lawyers And how do individual lawyers strategically navigate the constraints and opportunities of their environments Where do they find professional satisfaction This book offers an unprecedented account of opportunity structures and social stratification within the early 21st century American legal profession combining unique longitudinal survey data with interviews storytelling and insights from social theory Starting in 2000 the authors collected over 10 000 survey responses from more than 5 000 lawyers following these lawyers through the first twenty years of their careers They also conducted in depth interviews with more than 200 lawyers They contextualize their findings through attention to the features of a market driven legal profession in particular the growth in recent decades of the private sector relative to the public sector and corresponding disparities in earnings and status between these different segments The analysis in this book reveals a legal profession that is highly stratified Although individual lawyers exercise agency and often find satisfaction in their work there are deep divisions within the profession by client type and practice setting and women and attorneys of color face discrimination and persistent barriers to advancement The careers of lawyers both reflect and reproduce inequalities in law and society writ large Engaging with Actor-Network Theory as a Methodology in Medical Education Research Bethan Mitchell,2021-03-15 This book outlines a methodology based on actor network theory ANT and praxiography and applies this to the field of medical education Drawn from a detailed account of practice in a medical setting this book shows how researchers in education and medical education can learn to work with ANT approaches and attune to different insights in practice The book gives a detailed account of what actor network theory can bring to research through the investigation of social and material networks The philosophical underpinnings of actor network theory are presented as the basis of this emerging methodology through an exploration of learning as disruption practice as human and material assemblages and power as regulated difference in worlds of practice This is a qualitative approach for exploring complexity that does not attempt to represent or reduce but allows for unique insights into practice that might otherwise be overlooked With a robust grounding in practice and professional learning and actor network theory this book will be of great interest for academics scholars and postgraduate students in the field of research methods and medical education Corporate Social Responsibility, Sustainability and Public Relations Donnalyn Pompper,2015-11-19 While public relations offers numerous assets for organization stakeholder relationship building and for ethical corporate social responsibility and sustainability communication it also faces challenges linked to negative perceptions of the profession which can lead to accusations of greenwashing This innovative book critically explores the growing complex and sometimes contradictory connections among public relations corporate social responsibility and sustainability This book advocates a postmodern insider activist role for public relations which can transform organizations into moral places committed to people planet and profit By amplifying voices of nearly 100 for profit and nonprofit professionals and using hermeneutic phenomenological theme analyses of CSR Sustainability reports and websites this book invokes public relations postmodern and critical theories to empower public relations professionals to transform organizations into ethical authentic and transparent actors in the public sphere It is essential reading for scholars educators and enquiring professionals working in public relations corporate communication sustainability and corporate social responsibility The Oxford Handbook of Professional Service Firms Laura Empson,Daniel Muzio,Joseph P. Broschak,Christopher Robin Hinings,2015 The Oxford

Handbook of Professional Service Firms discusses firms providing services in the traditional professions such as law accounting and architecture as well as newer sectors such as management consulting advertising and engineering It provides a critical overview of contemporary research on PSFs and suggests avenues of future inquiry

Social Media and Democratization in Iraqi Kurdistan Munir Mohammad, 2019-10-15 Social Media and Democratization in Iraqi Kurdistan assesses the implications of social media usage for democratization in the context of Iraqi Kurdistan A considerable number of studies examine the impact of social media on the practice of democracy in liberal democratic contexts and on the democratization process in nondemocratic contexts However little is known about the rise and implications of using the Internet and social media platforms for democratization processes in a hybrid political system like that of Iraqi Kurdistan which combines elements of both democracy and authoritarianism The author investigates the use of social media platforms by citizens politicians electoral candidates and political parties and its significance for political participation and political communication which are selected as important elements of democratization Based on original qualitative research including interviews with activists politicians and party leaders and an analysis of relevant social media content in the Kurdish language especially on the social media platform Facebook the author argues that rather than the increase in online political participation and political communication contributing to the consolidation of democracy in the Kurdish nascent democracy it is increasing political polarization exacerbating incivility of political discourse and enabling monitoring of opposition forces by the authorities

Professional Practice and Learning Nick Hopwood, 2016-01-22 This book explores important questions about the relationship between professional practice and learning and implications of this for how we understand professional expertise Focusing on work accomplished through partnerships between practitioners and parents with young children the book explores how connectedness in action is a fluid evolving accomplishment with four essential dimensions times spaces bodies and things Within a broader sociomaterial perspective the analysis draws on practice theory and philosophy bringing different schools of thought into productive contact including the work of Schatzki

Gherardi and recent developments in cultural historical activity theory The book takes a bold view suggesting practices and learning are entwined but distinctive phenomena A clear and novel framework is developed based on this idea The argument goes further by demonstrating how new coproductive relationships between professionals and clients can intensify the pedagogic nature of professional work and showing how professionals can support others learning when the knowledge they are working with and sense of what is to be learned are uncertain incomplete and fragile Cambridge Handbook of Research Approaches to Business Ethics and Corporate Responsibility Patricia H. Werhane, R. Edward Freeman, Sergiy Dmytriiev, 2017-11-16 While there is a large and ever expanding body of work on the fields of business ethics and corporate social responsibility CSR there is a noted absence of a single source on the methodology and research approaches to these fields In this book the first of its kind leading scholars in the fields gather to analyse a range of philosophical and empirical approaches to research in business ethics and CSR It covers such sections as historical approaches normative and behavioural methodologies quantitative qualitative and experimental perspectives grounded theory and case methodologies and finally a section on the role of the researcher in research projects This book is a valuable and essential read for all researchers in business ethics and CSR not only for those starting out in the fields but also for seasoned scholars and academics Performance Measurement and Management Control Marc J.
