A Farewell to Adolescence

One of the scariest things about being in the Leaving Cert. is realising that you are the oldest pupils in the school. In the first couple of days it gently hits you that the people who once intimidated you so much are all gone. Any intimidation that goes on now is probably your esteemed self complaining (loudly) in the presence of first years about how cheeky and wild they are. At this stage you usually find yourself commenting on the fact that your own years were NEVER that rude and boisterous, and you begin to despair for the youth of today. Where, oh where, did they ever go wrong?

It is about now you realise that you're beginning to grow up. Talking about the 'youth of today' sets off alarm bells in your head because you've started to distance yourself from this section of society. You no longer include yourself in the category of 'teenager' or 'adolescent'. Technically, you'll be a teenager until the end of your nineteenth year, but being as mature and responsible as you are, you handily disregard this fact!

After the first couple of days in the Leaving Cert, it not-so-gently whacks you full-in-the-face that other people have also started to regard you as a young adult. Teachers, parents, and adults in general expect you to think and act more responsibly, as befits your new position in society. THAT's when you discover the role of a young adult has as many drawbacks as advantages.

The first problem encountered is that of choosing a career! Of course, you'd always realised that EVENTUALLY you'd have to decide what to do with the rest of your life. But never in your wildest dreams or worst nightmares did you imagine just how difficult it would really be. The careers teacher bombards you with information about points, open days, college prospectus, CAO-CAS forms, subject choices, apprentices and requirements. It vaguely registers somewhere in the back of your mind that you've heard all this before (perhaps in last years careers class???) but you weren't really listening (at the time) because it was just kind of boring and irrelevant. Right now it's about as far away from irrelevant as it can possibly be, and your head is in a whirl. Oh, to be back in first year when everything was simple and all anyone seemed to talk about was how wild and cheeky you were!

Added to this burden of deciding what to do with the rest of your life, is the workload of the average Leaving Certificate pupil. You seem to spend at least three hours every night doing homework alone. Wondering when you'll get around to revising fourth year work is useless – you simply DON'T HAVE THE TIME! Every teacher seems to have some comment to make about how little work you've done, and how much you've left to cover. Being a fulfilled, happy individual, however, you don't despair and it never even enters your head how hopeless everything is...
