The South China Sea Arbitration Alfredo C. Robles,2019-01-01 The South China Sea Arbitration which marks the first time that the Philippines and China have been parties to a compulsory dispute settlement procedure is a landmark legal case The Tribunal tackled head on critical issues in the interpretation and application of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea that other international courts have failed to address particularly the compatibility of historic rights with the Convention the identification of maritime features as permanently submerged or above water at high tide and the distinction between features that are fully entitled to maritime zones and those that are not In addition the Tribunal also had to decide on issues as diverse as near collisions at sea illegal fishing of giant clams and sea turtles and the destruction of fragile coral reefs resulting from island building The Tribunals task was rendered arduous by Chinas refusal to appear before it In these circumstances understanding the Tribunals decisions is a challenging undertaking Chinas public relations campaign targeting the proceedings raised issues that the layperson could readily grasp notably African states support for its non appearance the integrity of the judges and the validity of arbitral awards Understanding the Awards and Debating with China aims to facilitate understanding of the South China Sea Arbitration by presenting detailed summaries of the two Arbitral Awards The author rebuts the questionable claims raised by Chinas public relations campaign and highlights Chinas covert actions during the proceedings

Reimagining Clinical Legal Education Linden Thomas,Steven Vaughan,Bharat Malkani,Theresa Lynch,2018-10-04 Clinical Legal Education CLE can be defined in broad terms as the study of law through real or simulated casework It enables students to experience the law in action and to reflect on those experiences CLE offers an alternative learning experience to the traditional lecture seminar method and allows participants to take the study of law beyond the lecture theatre and library CLE has been a part of English law schools for several decades and is becoming an increasingly popular component of a number of programmes It is also well established in North America Australia and many other countries around the globe In some law schools CLE is credit bearing in others it is an extracurricular activity Some CLE schemes focus on social welfare law whilst others are commercially orientated A number are run in conjunction with third sector organisations and many are supported by private practice law firms This edited collection brings together academics lawyers third sector organisations and students to discuss the present experience and potential of CLE As such it will be of interest to a wide and diverse audience both within and outside the UK
