W. Earle,2015-06-15 Excerpt from More Pot Pourri From a Surrey Garden September 1st 1898 It is now a year and a half since I finished my first book and the public have been almost as appreciative and generous in their praise of it as my nieces were Kind letters of all sorts have poured in and I have been overwhelmed with suggestions about the future and what I should or should not do Some have said and I admit that these in all friendliness are the most earnest in their heartfelt appeals that I should rest on my laurels and write no more They urge that a second book always falls flat If on the same subject as the first it is generally a failure If on a new subject it is apt to be outside the writer s experience And then they quote several incontestable examples which jump to the recollection of everybody I really agree with this view of the case up to the point of not acting upon it Nothing can ever bear being done a second time This is one of the sadnesses of life and I do not for a moment anticipate that No 2 can please in the same kind of way as did No 1 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Pot-Pourri from a Surrey Garden Maria Theresa Earle,Lady Constance Georgina Lytton,2016-05-21 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Pot-pourri from a Surrey Garden Mrs. C.
