Professional Learning from Classroom-Based Inquiries Jyoti Rookshana Jhagroo,Patricia Martha Stringer,2023-09-29 This book provides authentic practice based inquiries by pre service teachers Their reflective narratives showcase their individual inquiries as they navigated their self chosen professional learning journeys through the teaching as inquiry framework The narratives advance what it means to be a reflective practitioner in practice and highlight necessary dispositional skill sets to attain valuable professional learning through inquiry Through an inquiry stance pre service teachers are liberated from being knowledge consumers to local knowledge producers relevant to their practice The dissonance this shift creates negates the comfortable doing of teaching to make the act of teaching authentic relevant and powerful

Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi,Michael G. Moran,1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs

Selected Writings of Richard McKeon, Volume Two Richard P. McKeon, 1998 Richard McKeon was a philosopher of extraordinary creativity who brought profoundly original ideas to bear on more standard ways of thinking and learning A classicist medievalist and revolutionary intellectual he fashioned an approach to philosophy as a plural conversation among varied traditions of thought epochs and civilizations This second volume of McKeon's selected works demonstrates his approach to inquiry and practice in culture education and the arts Together the writings in this book show how McKeon reinvented the ancient arts of rhetoric grammar logic and dialectic for the new circumstances of a global culture In essays on creation and criticism for instance rhetoric is distinguished from grammar and shown to be the master art of invention judgment and pluralistic interpretation Writings on themes of culture meanwhile explore the self invention of mankind as justification for the arts the development of the humanities and the organization of the sciences In the closing essays on education and philosophy McKeon considers the implications of his ideas for the future of the liberal arts and higher learning

Witches, Scientists, Philosophers: Essays and Lectures Robert E. Butts, 2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn
