Annals of the Metropolitan Opera Gerald Fitzgerald, 2016-06-11 The Ballets of Ludwig Minkus Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2008-10-01 The composer Ludwig Minkus represents one of music s biggest mysteries Who was he Hardly anything is known about him and yet he occupied an influential position in the theatres of the Imperial ballet in late nineteenth century Russia He has been recognised as a predecessor of Tchaikovsky but as a musician is commonly held to have been so feeble as to be beneath contempt Yet despite the scorn heaped on him and his consequent obscurity Minkus is far from being forgotten Since the early 1960s his name has slowly begun to re surface Two works Don Quixote 1869 and La Bayad re 1877 have been presented in their entirety for the first time to new audiences all over the world The musical and dramatic power of both ballets has taken people by surprise The stories have a very real human appeal the choreography attracts the admiration of balletomanes and the music with its rhythm verve and beauty of melody holds attention and engages the heart wherever it is heard This introduction seeks to discover something more behind the blank fa ade of Minkus s life and work What do we actually know about him as a man and as an artist Are we able to apprehend his oeuvre as a whole and how much can we establish from the available material

What is the nature of the music he created for those few works that have survived the years and that have come to the fore again recently to delight those who have ears to hear This study includes iconography from the life and times of the composer many musical examples from his works and a comprehensive bibliography and discography

French Romantic Ballets Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2012-03-15 This collection presents music from three of the most important scores of the Golden Age of ballet in Paris from 1830 1870 The Romantic ballet had been inaugurated by Meyerbeer's opera Robert le Diable 21 November 1831 with its ghostly Ballet of the Nuns risen from their graves and dancing in the moonlight led by their spectral Abbess a role created by Marie Taglioni 1804 1884 to her father's choreography La Sylphide 1832 inspired by this situation was the first fully fledged Romantic ballet Its graceful and atmospheric score was written by the first violinist at the Opéra Jean Schneitzhoeffter The story devised by the great tenor Adolphe Nourrit similarly introduces spirits and elemental beings which dominated ballet scenarios for the following decades Filippo Taglioni's creation provided the fullest realization of the Romantic ideal especially in the leading character of the story and its perfect incarnation in the original interpreter Marie Taglioni whose stage personality seemed to be made for the part of the Sylphide The ballet became the source of theatrically romantic fantasies centred around the hopeless and fatal love between a human being and a supernatural creature It was performed in Paris until 1860 when the work was abandoned Only in the late 20th century was Taglioni's original version revived in a literal reconstruction by Pierre Lacotte at the Paris Opéra on 7 June 1972 Giselle is a central work in the ballet repertory all over the world It is regarded as the absolute masterpiece of Romantic dance theatre a wonderful synthesis of style technique and dramatic feeling with an exceptional score The ballet was devised in 1841 as a result of the collaboration of some of the major talents in literature choreography and music in the Paris of the time The author critic and poet Théophile Gautier overwhelmed by the art of the ballerina Carlotta Grisi 1819 1899 discovered what he felt would be the perfect theme for her while reading a translation of Heinrich Heine's book on German legend and folklore D'Allemagne Here he found the legend of the wilis maidens who die before their wedding day and who come out of their graves at night in bridal dress to dance until dawn Should any man be caught in the wood while the wilis are about their rituals he is doomed to dance on and on until he drops dead from exhaustion The choreography was created by Jean Coralli and Jules Perrot The first act is on a realistic level with an evocation of a medieval rusticity and emotional sentimental intrigue while the second act conjures up the supernatural an ethereal world of magic symbolism Both public and the critics greeted the work as a triumph The score was praised for its elegance the freshness and clarity of the melodies the vigour and novelty of the harmonic combinations and the vivacity that pervades the musical texture from start to finish The ballet has come down the years in a more or less unbroken tradition Perrot emphasized his own special creative imprint in the productions he supervised in London 1842 and St Petersburg 1856 In Russia he collaborated with Marius Petipa who made his own reconstruction of the ballet in 1884 This version became the model for all later revivals in Russia as well as for Mikhail

Fokine's production for the Ballet Russes in Paris 1910 Byron's famous narrative poem The Corsair inspired several ballets with Joseph Mazilier's proving the most important 1856 Jules Henri Vernoy de Saint-Georges's scenario was of a superior quality Mazilier was maître de ballet at the Paris Opéra between 1853 and 1859 the years of his fullest creativity The solo parts were infused with an intense dramatic expressiveness and there was a splendid mise en scène But the great success of the work was due primarily to the quality of the chief performers the ballerina Carolina Rosati 1826-1905 and the mime Domenico Segarelli 1820-1860 The spectacular shipwreck finale was a sensational feat engineered by the chief mechanist of the Opéra Victor Sacré and his crowning glory Adam's score consistently rich in melodic inspiration engaging in the set dances imaginative in the many extended mime sequences and more richly symphonic than ever before in his work reached a height of inspiration in this last music he ever wrote for the stage Mazilier's ballet gained a world-wide popularity and became a favourite of the leading ballerinas for decades Marius Petipa produced his own version in St Petersburg in 1868 with additional music by Cesare Pugni and Léo Delibes In 1899 Petipa revived the ballet again for the Maryinsky Theatre in St Petersburg this time completely re-choreographing it for Pierina Legnani with additional music by Riccardo Drigo Performances in the USSR and contemporary Russia derive from this version Drigo's music for the spectacular pas de deux in act 2 is still performed all over the world as an independent piece San Francisco Ballet at Seventy-Five Janice Ross, 2007-11-12 Long renowned as one of the world's preeminent ballet companies San Francisco Ballet marks its seventy-fifth anniversary with a stunningly beautiful retrospective Replete with intimate portraits of the dancers and behind the scenes contributors this book is the first serious depiction of America's oldest ballet company Included in this deluxe package is a DVD that provides insight into the company's illustrious history and together with the book tells the story of how San Francisco Ballet has forged a fresh identity for American dance and is now pioneering a new model of internationalism in the dance world The Oxford Dictionary of Dance Debra Craine, Judith Mackrell, 2010-08-19 This comprehensive and up-to-date dictionary provides all the information necessary for dance fans to navigate the diverse dance scene of the 21st century It includes entries ranging from classical ballet to the cutting edge of modern dance Musical Theatre at the Court of Louis XIV Rebecca Harris-Warrick, Carol G.
