Delphi Collected Works of Sir Richard Francis Burton (Illustrated) Sir Richard Francis Burton, 2016-11-06 www.delphiclassics.com The Latter-Day Saints' Millennial Star, 1897 Mormonism and the Emotions Mauro Properzi, 2015-05-21 Mormonism and the Emotions An Analysis of LDS Scriptural Texts is an introductory Latterday Saint LDS theology of emotion that is both canonically based and scientifically informed It highlights three widely accepted characteristics of emotion that emerge from scientific perspectives namely the necessity of cognition for its emergence the personal responsibility attached to its manifestations and its instrumentality in facilitating various processes of human development and experience In analyzing the basic theological structure of Mormonism and its unique canonical texts the objective is to determine the extent to which LDS theology is compatible with this three fold definition of emotion At this basic level of explanation the conclusion is that science and Mormon theology undoubtedly share a common perspective The textual investigation focuses on unique Mormon scriptures and on their descriptions of six common emotions hope fear joy sorrow love and hate For each of these emotional phenomena the extensive report of textual references consistently confirms an implied presence of the outlined three fold model of emotion Thus the evidence points to the presence of an underlying folk model of emotion in the text that broadly matches scientific definitions Additionally the theological examination is enlarged with a particular focus on the Mormon theology of atonement which is shown to play a significant role in LDS understandings of emotions A broad exploration of such areas as epistemology cosmology soteriology and the theological anthropology of Mormonism further contextualizes the analysis and roots it in the LDS theological worldview The Oxford Handbook of Mormonism Terryl Givens, Philip L.
