Paris Nouveau Et Paris Futur:

The Arcades Project Walter Benjamin, 1999 Focusing on the arcades of 19th century Paris glass roofed rows of shops that were early centers of consumerism Benjamin presents a montage of quotations from and reflections on hundreds of published sources 46 illustrations

Sex Work, Text Work Jessica Tanner, 2023-05-15 Though male French authors plotted prostitution to make their names mimicking the surveillance of municipal authorities the sex workers in their books manage to evade efforts to contain them While prostitutes in nineteenth century Paris were subject to municipal laws that policed their bodies and movements writers of the era enlisted them to stake their own claims on both the city and the novel as literary territory

Sex Work Text Work Mapping Prostitution in the Nineteenth Century French Novel explores how prostitutes depicted by mile Zola Joris Karl Huysmans Edmond de Goncourt Adolphe Tabarant and Charles Louis Philippe write back confounding civil and literary efforts to contain them in space and in narrative In city regulated brothels brasseries femmes Haussmannian boulevards and the novel itself working class prostitutes served to reinforce the boundaries of social inclusion and exclusion And yet Jessica Tanner contends even the novels that most explicitly aligned with the disciplinary logic of regulated prostitution make space for a distinctly literary form of resistance these women elude or disrupt the mapping that would claim them as literary territory revealing their authors failure to secure their narratives as property Tanner pushes back against the critical tendency to attribute agency only to courtesans who became published authors and forwards a new framework for understanding the political work novels engage in as they circulate

Observing that debates about the regulation of prostitution surfaced in tandem with racialized anxieties about the boundaries of the French nation Tanner ultimately expands that framework to the history of French colonialism and the politics of immigration in the current day This book shows that while sex workers have been recruited to mark the borders of civic and moral life prostitution can also make space for more inclusive forms of community both in the novel and in the world beyond its bounds

The Cult of the Modern Gavin Murray-Miller, 2017 The Cult of the Modern focuses on nineteenth century France and Algeria and examines the role that ideas of modernity and modernization played in both national and colonial programs during the years of the Second Empire and the early Third Republic Gavin Murray Miller rethinks the subject by examining the idiomatic use of modernity in French cultural and political discourse The Cult of the Modern argues that the modern French republic is a product of nineteenth century colonialism rather than a creation of the Enlightenment or the French Revolution This analysis contests the predominant Parisian and metropolitan contexts that have traditionally framed French modernity studies noting the important role that colonial Algeria and the administration of Muslim subjects played in shaping understandings of modern identity and governance among nineteenth century politicians and intellectuals In synthesizing the narratives of continental France and colonial North Africa Murray Miller proposes a new framework for nineteenth century French political and cultural history bringing into sharp relief the diverse ways in which the French nation was imagined and represented throughout the country's turbulent postrevolutionary history as well as the implications for prevailing understandings of France today The Railway Journey Wolfgang Schivelbusch, 2014-05-06 The impact of constant technological change upon our perception of the world is so pervasive as to have become a commonplace of modern society But this was not always the case as Wolfgang Schivelbusch points out in this fascinating study our adaptation to technological change the development of our modern industrialized consciousness was very much a learned behavior In The Railway Journey Schivelbusch examines the origins of this industrialized consciousness by exploring the reaction in the nineteenth century to the first dramatic avatar of technological change the railroad In a highly original and engaging fashion Schivelbusch discusses the ways in which our perceptions of distance time autonomy speed and risk were altered by railway travel As a history of the surprising ways in which technology and culture interact this book covers a wide range of topics including the changing perception of landscapes the death of conversation while traveling the problematic nature of the railway compartment the space of glass architecture the pathology of the railway journey industrial fatigue and the history of shock and the railroad and the city Belonging to a distinguished European tradition of critical sociology best exemplified by the work of Georg Simmel and Walter Benjamin The Railway Journey is anchored in rich empirical data and full of striking insights about railway travel the industrial revolution and technological change Now updated with a new preface The Railway Journey is an invaluable resource for readers interested in nineteenth century culture and technology and the prehistory of modern media and digitalization The Industrialization and Perception of Time and Space Wolfgang Schivelbusch, 1986 Paris Revealed Stephen Clarke, 2012-03-20 A hilarious insider's guide to Paris by the author of 1000 Years of Annoying the French Clarke's eye for detail is terrific The Washington Post Stephen Clarke may have adopted Paris as his home but he still has an Englishman's eye for the people cafés art sidewalks food fashion and romance that make Paris a one of a kind city This irreverent outsider turned insider guide shares local savoir faire from how to separate the good restaurants from the bad to navigating the baffling Métro system It also provides invaluable insights into the etiquette of public urination and the best ways to experience Parisian life without annoying the Parisians a truly delicate art Clarke's witty and expert tour of the city leaves no boulevard unexplored even those that might be better left alone Dividing Paris Esther da Costa Meyer, 2022-02-15 A groundbreaking work of scholarship that sheds critical new light on the urban renewal of Paris under Napoleon III In the mid nineteenth century Napoleon III and his prefect Georges Eugène Haussmann adapted Paris to the requirements of industrial capitalism endowing the old city with elegant boulevards an enhanced water supply modern sewers and public greenery Esther da Costa Meyer provides a major reassessment of this ambitious project which resulted in widespread destruction in the historic center displacing thousands of poor residents and polarizing the urban fabric Drawing on newspapers memoirs and other archival materials da Costa Meyer explores how people from different social strata both women and men experienced the urban reforms implemented by the Second Empire As hundreds of tenements were destroyed to make way for upscale apartment buildings thousands of impoverished residents were forced to the periphery which lacked the services enjoyed by wealthier parts of the city Challenging the idea of Paris as the capital of modernity da Costa Meyer shows how the city was the hub of a sprawling colonial empire extending from the Caribbean to Asia and exposes the underlying violence that enriched it at the expense of overseas territories This marvelously illustrated book brings to light the contributions of those who actually built and maintained the impressive infrastructure of Paris and reveals the consequences of colonial practices for the city s cultural economic and political life

The Sentiment of Spending Alison M. K. Walls, 2008 The nineteenth century saw a fundamental change in the practice and psychology of shopping with the appearance of the department store La Samaritaine in Paris 1869 Macy s in New York 1858 and Harrods in London 1849 were early representations of Western consumer culture The Sentiment of Spending examines this shift first on a socio historic level and then through the literary lens of some of the century s most vital authors the exponents of Naturalism Emile Zola Guy de Maupassant and Jori Karl Huysmans as well as the fascinating if rarely studied Rachilde In the works discussed the characters reveal through their interpersonal sexual and sentimental relationships the penetrating effects of a consumerist culture As both a literary and social analysis this book also addresses the moral question inherent in a world where shopping and sentiment are so inextricably intertwined The Sentiment of Spending provides profound insights into some essential texts and is an engaging read for anyone with an interest in French literature and its reflection of our society

Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10-01 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112072131219 and Others,1865 New York-Paris Laure Katsaros,2012-10-15 A comparison of the mid 19th century city in the poetry of Walt Whitman and Charles Baudelaire and their responses to the inescapable push of modernization Counter-Modernities in Nineteenth-Century French Literature Robert St. Clair,2025-07-31 Counter Modernities in Nineteenth Century French Literature explores a counterview of modernity in late nineteenth century French literature 1848 1891 The principal claim of this book is that what we find in the works of Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert is a form of writing against the grain of history not the elegant lyricism of history s victors but a use of literature against the erasures of past injustices and for those lost futurities upon which the order of the present is founded What we find in other words is a critical literary archive of the powerless that persists in contesting the legitimacy of the powerful which persists in haunting the nineteenth century every bit as much as it does our own achingly out of joint present The story Counter Modernities seeks to tell is in other words about the meaning of loss and the significance of losers as possible figures of opposition to the dominant order in nineteenth century French literature that is also a story about modernity as an aesthetic politics What brings together the authors in this study however cannot be reduced be the biographical that is to the uneven successes financial hardships and in one case outright failure i e Rimbaud shared by the authors in the literary market of their lifetime At stake in this study is not an account of the ironies of literary history wherein to gloss Walter Benjamin s take on Baudelaire a prior and benighted era sees little of interest in an artist in which a later epoch recognizes the genius of modernity Rather Constellations of Loss in Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert demonstrates how each author in this critical corpus insists on tarrying with history as an experience of irrevocable loss each lingers with history as a force of negations and thereby insists on the significance of historical setbacks and political defeats that seem to affect if not more dramatically wipe out the collective hopes of entire generations Each one gives us losers as subjects who matter in the nineteenth century Baudelaire Flaubert Rimbaud narratives of historical defeat that are as negative as they are meaningful Baudelaire Flaubert or the contours of events whose meanings and narratives are themselves lost Baudelaire Rimbaud whose meanings remain in other words perhaps less absent than open ended a possible grammar for what may come next when hope seems lost and dreams dashed Indeed as this books shows it is precisely in its representation of history as a dilemma or undoing of meaningfulness a problem of legibility and not knowingness that we can most fully recognize the formal calling cards of literary modernity ironic undecidabilities and difficulties infinite interpretability and the death of the author the dissolution of previously stable cultural and historical narratives or forms of subjectivity formal breaks with semantically oriented modes of representation and so on Expositions Philippe Hamon,1992-01-01 In Expositions Philippe Hamon leads us on an engaging intellectual stroll through the spaces and representations of the nineteenth century French metropolis Inspired by the cultural histories of Walter Benjamin and Wolfgang Schivelbusch Expositions explores the spatial and cultural logic of Haussmann's sweeping Paris boulevards classic novels by Balzac and Zola the Bon Marché department store and the poetry of Baudelaire Home and its Dislocations in Nineteenth-Century France Suzanne Nash,1993-01-01 The nineteenth century witnessed an unprecedented social restructuring that disrupted traditional notions of people and place country and city private and public spheres The break with the old order and the entry into the industrial age was most dramatically played out in France with the growth of a new urban middle class under the July monarchy and the rebuilding of Paris by Haussmann under the Second Empire The personal immediate and radical effects of these changes produced an altered conception of the meaning of home and a homeland Focusing primarily on mid nineteenth century France these essays by noted literary critics offer fascinating new accounts of the relationship between the social history of home and homelessness and the imaginative expressions of the age This probing interdisciplinary approach combining theoretical sophistication with historical detail addresses the fundamental importance of class and gender to the modern history of homelessness Its provocative readings of well known texts provide a model of cultural studies at its best and most serious Paris Patrice L. R HIGONNET,2009-06-30 In an original and evocative journey through modern Paris from the mid eighteenth century to World War II Patrice Higonnet offers a delightful cultural portrait of a multifaceted continually changing city In examining the myths and countermyths of Paris that have been created and re created over time Higonnet reveals a magical urban alchemy in which each era absorbs the myths and perceptions of Paris past adapts them to the cultural imperatives of its own time and feeds them back into the city creating a new environment Paris was central to the modern world in ways internal and external genuine and imagined progressive and decadent Higonnet explores Paris as the capital of revolution science empire literature and art describing such incarnations as Belle Époque Paris the Commune the surrealists city and Paris as viewed through American eyes He also evokes the more visceral Paris of alienation crime material excess and sensual pleasure Insightful informative and gracefully written Paris illuminates the intersection of collective and individual imaginations in a perpetually shifting urban dynamic In describing his Paris of the real and of the imagination Higonnet sheds brilliant new light on this endlessly intriguing city Paris nouveau et Paris futur Victor Fournel,2007
