Hudgins,2017-03-01 David Alan Black has been one of the leading voices in New Testament studies over the last forty years His contributions to Greek grammar textual criticism the Synoptic problem the authorship of Hebrews and many more have challenged scholars and students to get into the text of the New Testament like never before and to rethink the status quo based on all the evidence The present volume consists of thirteen studies written by some of Black s colleagues friends and former students on a number of New Testament topics in honor of his successful research and teaching career Not only do they address issues that have garnered his attention over the years they also extend the scholarly discussion with up to date research and fresh evaluations of the evidence making this book a valuable contribution in itself to the field that Black has devoted himself to since he began his career The Eucharist in Theology and Philosophy István Perczel,Réka Forrai,György Geréby,2005 Discusses the conceptual doctrinal theological and philosophical aspects of the developments concerning the Eucharistic doctrines of the Christian Churches not just the Western ones but the Byzantino Slavic and Oriental ones too God's Equal Sigurd Grindheim,2011-08-18 In this book Sigurd Grindheim argues that Jesus implicitly claimed to be God s equal and that his claim to be God s son must be understood in this light The argument unfolds through analysis of the gospel accounts regarding Jesus claims to inaugurate the Kingdom of God his understanding of his miracles his forgiveness of sins his expectation to be the ultimate judge of all the world his claim to speak with an authority that matches that of the Mosaic law the absolute demands he made to his disciples and his appropriation for himself of metaphors that in the Scriptures of Israel were exclusively used of YHWH Furthermore Grindheim traces these claimes back to the Historical Jesus Through a comprehensive examination of the primary sources Grindheim argues that Jesus claims go beyond the claims made on behalf of human and even angelic beings within Second Temple Judaism Jesus presents himself in a role that in a Jewish context was reserved for YHWH Texts and Traditions Peter Doble,Jeffrey Kloha,2014-07-24 The methodology of New Testament textual criticism the critical evaluation of readings and the history and texts of early Christianity is the focus of the influential work of J K Elliott Texts and Traditions offers eighteen essays in his honour The essays by colleagues and students from his long career reflect Elliott s wide interest and impact From questions of the purpose and practice of textual criticism to detailed assessment of New Testament literature and the readings of its manuscripts to provocative studies of the reception of Jesus and the New Testament in the second century this volume will be of value to those studying the New Testament and Early Christianity The Ceremonies and Religious Customs of the Various Nations of the Known World ,1743 The extra-canonical life of Christ, drawn from uninspired sources by B.
