Research Handbook on the Law of Virtual and Augmented Reality Woodrow Barfield, Marc Jonathan Blitz, 2018-12-28 Virtual and augmented reality raise significant questions for law and policy When should virtual world activities or augmented reality images count as protected First Amendment speech and when are they instead a nuisance or trespass When does copying them infringe intellectual property laws When should a person or computer face legal consequences for allegedly harmful virtual acts The Research Handbook on the Law of Virtual and Augmented Reality addresses these questions and others drawing upon free speech doctrine criminal law issues of data protection and privacy legal rights for increasingly intelligent avatars and issues of jurisdiction within virtual and augmented reality worlds Computer Buyer's Guide and Handbook, 1998, A Practitioner's Guide to European Patent Law Paul England, 2025-08-21 This new edition offers a comprehensive and practical guide to European patent law This book uniquely addresses European patent law using a thematic approach assessing the national and EPO approaches together rather than in nation by nation chapters Each chapter therefore enables the common ground and differences between approaches to be assessed The most influential European patent law jurisdictions are covered in the book including the leading cases from the European Patent Office England and Wales France Germany and the Netherlands The book also draws insights from further afield with contributions from other very active patent jurisdictions including Italy Sweden Denmark and Switzerland In addition to featuring completely revised content on the fast moving subject areas of FRAND and plausibility and updates in all other areas of patent law the third edition includes for the first time fully integrated coverage of every substantive decision of the Unified Patent Court A must read for anyone working in the field of European patent law Brain Stimulation and Behavioral Change Claudio Lucchiari, Nicholas J. Kelley, Maria E. Vanutelli, Roberta Ferrucci, 2019-05-15 The eBook entitled Brain Stimulation and Behavioral Change is a collection of articles about the use of transcranial electric stimulation tES to change behaviors and face pathological conditions to enhance cognition and to explore cerebral functions using safe and non invasive brain modulation techniques The tESs include transcranial direct current stimulation tDCS transcranial alternate current stimulation tACS and due to the way it induces changes in the brain Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation TMS The use of tES has recently exploded Certainly one reason for this explosion of research is that it is a cheap way to change behavior However on the other hand we still know very little about the neural mechanisms that underlie tES The present eBook includes both original studies and reviews It covers a wide scope of arguments including studies aimed at testing the potential ability of tES in mitigating physical and psychiatric symptoms and to support neurological rehabilitation enhancing reading abilities motor abilities and creativity Furthermore some contributions about the role of tES in discovering and mapping the neuro functional correlates of higher cognitive functions are also included The common background of the contributions included in the eBook lies in the idea that we need sound scientific evidence about how to move these techniques from labs to real life contexts Addressing these issues and understanding the real potentialities of tES in clinical and non clinical applications require a significant cross fertilization between disciplines We hope this eBook will be able to boost the discussion on this vital topic

The Story of Looking Mark Cousins,2020-01-16 The acclaimed author and filmmaker s investigation into the human gaze through history art and science paints an illuminating portrait of our culture Looking can be an act of empathy or aggression It can provoke desire or express it And from the blurry edgeless world we inhabit as infants to the landscape of screens we grow into looking can define us In The Story of Looking filmmaker and writer Mark Cousins takes us on a tour in words and images through the development of the human gaze over the course of a lifetime and the ways that looking has changed through the centuries From great works of art to tourist photographs from cityscapes to cinema through science and protest propaganda and refusals to look the false mirrors and great visionaries of looking this book illuminates how we construct as well as receive the things we see The Story of Looking is a photo album and an art gallery a road movie and a visual grammar once you ve read it you ll never see things the same way again Shortlisted for the Saltire Society Non Fiction Award A wide ranging history of looking you will gaze at it in wonder Ian Sansom The Guardian UK Transmedium Garrett Stewart, 2018-01-26 If you attend a contemporary art exhibition today you are unlikely to see much traditional painting or sculpture. Indeed, artists today are preoccupied with what happens when you leave behind assumptions about particular media such as painting or woodcuts and instead focus on collisions between them and the new forms and ideas that those collisions generate. Garrett Stewart in Transmedium dubs this new approach Conceptualism 2.0, an allusion in part to the computer images that are so often addressed by these works. A successor to 1960s Conceptualism which posited that a material medium was unnecessary to the making of art, Conceptualism 2.0 features artworks that are transmedial that place the aesthetic experience itself deliberately at the boundary between often incommensurable media. The result Stewart shows is art whose forced convergences break open new possibilities that are wholly surprising, intellectually enlightening and often uncanny.

Forever Girls Jinhee Choi, 2025-02-28 Forever Girls explores girlhood and the image of death manifest in contemporary South Korean cinema where girls' bodies have repeatedly embodied various conflicting socio-political forces that shaped the nation. With the depiction of girlhood from the 1970s as a reference image, Jinhee Choi examines the extent to which the girlhood represented in millennial South Korean cinema still resonates with such an image, ultimately arguing that South Korean cinema needs to more adequately mourn girls' deaths and grant them the very girlhood that has long been denied.

Entertained or Else Tina Kendall, 2025-09-18 This book considers the complex and often contradictory relations that are forged between boredom and everyday media use in the twenty-first century and demonstrates how networked media have developed new technical means of capitalizing on boredom's state of suspension to make it into a source of value creation. Focusing on the discursive, technological and affective structures that encourage users to be entertaining and to remain entertained, the book analyses how boredom has been increasingly instrumentalized as both an individual mood and a wider structure of feeling that drives participation across media networks It identifies the range of cultural techniques for codifying classifying sensing and pre-empting boredom as well as those that teach users counter-intuitively to embrace boring media as a means of coping with the intensities of always-on existence However if boredom is positioned in a digital network culture as a feeling that keeps driving us back to our social media feeds it is important to ask how else it might operate While the technological affordances of computational media have put pressure on our ability to conceive of boredom as a radical challenge to digital capitalism this book attempts to think about the potential that might still be embedded in boredom's capacity to temporarily suspend or to neutralize dominant structures of attention and affect Building on the work of Giorgio Agamben Byung Chul Han Roland Barthes and from historical accounts of boredom and entertainment the book provides a new understanding of boredom in the context of networked media
