No Time Like The Present:

No Time Like the Present Kristen Sheley, 2002-10-14 Sam Foster is a fairly typical modern American teenager who just invented a time machine Sam didn't mean to bring back anything from his first trip to the past but he returned home to 2005 with more than he bargained for in the form Meg Clayton a spirited pioneer girl from Oregon Sam would be only too happy to obey Meg's demand she be taken home at once but he encounters technical difficulties and a stranger who may threaten more than just Meg's life

No Time Like the Present Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-27 A sharply observed new novel about post apartheid South Africa from the Nobel Prize winner Nadine Gordimer is one of our most telling contemporary writers With each new work she attacks with a clear eyed fierceness a lack of sentimentality and a deep understanding of the darkest depths of the human soul her eternal themes the inextricable link between personal and communal history the inescapable moral ambiguities of daily life the political and racial tensions that persist in her homeland South Africa And in each new work is fresh evidence of her literary genius in the sharpness of her psychological insights the stark beauty of her language the complexity of her characters and the difficult choices with which they are faced In No Time Like the Present Gordimer trains her keen eye on Steve and Jabulile an interracial couple living in a newly tentatively free South Africa They have a daughter Sindiswa they move to the suburbs Steve becomes a lecturer at a university Jabulile trains to become a lawyer there is another child a boy this time There is nothing so extraordinary about their lives and yet in telling their story and the stories of their friends and families Gordimer manages to capture the tortured fragmented essence of a nation struggling to define itself post apartheid The subject is contemporary but Gordimer's treatment is as ever timeless In No Time Like the Present she shows herself once again a master novelist at the height of her prodigious powers

No Time Like the Present Jack Kornfield, 2017-05-16 Jack shows how we get stuck and how we can free ourselves wherever we are and whatever our circumstances Renowned for his mindfulness practices and meditations Jack provides these keys for opening gateways to immediate shifts in perspective and clarity of vision allowing us to see how to change course take action or when we shouldn't act just relax and trust

No Time Like the Present Karen Roggenkamp, 1990
