Gunnar J. Weimann

Northern Nigeria Criminal Procedure Code:

Islamic Criminal Law in Northern Nigeria Gunnar J. Weimann, 2010 Annotation In 2000 and 2001 twelve northern states of the Federal Republic of Nigeria introduced Islamic criminal law as one of a number of measures aiming at reintroducing the shari'a. Immediately after its adoption defendants were sentenced to death by stoning or to amputation of the hand. Apart from a few well publicised trials however the number and nature of cases tried under Islamic criminal law are little known. Based on a sample of trials the present thesis discusses the introduction of Islamic criminal law and the evolution of judicial practice within the regions historical cultural political and religious context. The introduction of Islamic criminal law was initiated by politicians and supported by Muslim reform groups but its potential effects were soon mitigated on higher judicial levels and aspects of the law were contained by local administrators. Criminal Justice Responses to the Boko Haram Crisis in Nigeria Victoria Ojo-Adewuyi, 2024-01-01 This book concentrates on the crisis perpetrated by the Boko Haram group in Nigeria which since 2009 has made a definitive impact on both the domestic and international criminal landscape. The volume centres on three core issues: first an assessment of the criminal legal responses at the domestic level where the legal characterization of the conducts in question including an evaluation of the state of specific domestic prosecutions are assessed. Secondly the book gauges the potential for international criminal justice while evaluating the Boko Haram situation at the International Criminal Court. This includes an assessment of the jurisdictional aspects, the admissibility and the interests of justice requirements in addition to the appraisal of conducts amounting to war crimes and crimes against humanity perpetrated. Finally the book explores possible non-prosecutorial responses in the form of classic and non classic transitional justice mechanisms that may be utilized as a response to the crisis in Nigeria. Furthermore it draws instructive lessons from Nigeria's past misadventure with specific transitional justice mechanisms while exploring the realities of utilizing the restorative justice mechanisms available in Nigeria. The volume concludes by calling for a victim centred approach in the discourse around the Boko Haram crisis. This book presents a definitive study of the history of the development of Boko Haram and the related domestic and international criminal legal issues. Researchers and anyone seeking to understand the Boko Haram crisis in relation to international criminal law including those looking for a clear overview of the criminal conduct perpetrated by Boko Haram in Nigeria and a view of Nigeria's domestic legal regime will benefit from the information on offer. Victoria Ojo-Adewuyi is a lawyer called to the Nigeria Bar in 2012. She obtained a Bachelor of Laws degree LL.B in 2011 from the Obafemi Awolowo University Ile-Ife, Nigeria, and a Master of Laws Degree LL.M from the University of the Western Cape, Cape Town, South Africa.
