North West Vaal Triangle Campus Prospectus 2016:

Economic Shocks and Globalisation Elsabé Loots, 2024-08-01 Over the 153 year period since 1870 the phenomenon of globalisation has been shaped and reshaped As we look back at the events that shaped our understanding of the process and its momentum before and after the Global Financial Crisis GFC it became clear that the process of globalisation has changed and continues to evolve which requires a deeper analysis The book answers the question of why the performance of the hyper globalisation period has not continued during the post GFC period after 2010 and what might be expected going forward Apart from the fact that the fourth globalisation wave period between 2010 to the early 2020s has been characterised by a range of global shocks that caused more volatility instability and uncertainty the major economic determinants of globalisation have also slowed markedly The outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic followed by the geopolitical uncertainty and instability all caused global contagion effects around the world with economic socio economic and geopolitical consequences and responses This book aims to analyse most of these global events and shocks and attempted to gather a deeper understanding of the present drivers of globalisation and what the major trends and shifts are geo economically socio economically and geopolitically The conclusions drawn include that globalisation remains despite the current slowbalisation an integrated process that is globally entrenched yet complex cyclical multifaceted and multiplex This book is aimed at academics in economics political sciences social sciences and may also find an audience among international policymakers and scholars at multilateral institutions such as the World Bank and the United Nations

South African Accounting Education Stocktake Jaco Fouchè, Nico van der Merwe, 2020-04-07 This book is intended to take stock of the current state of accounting education with a specific emphasis on the South African situation It provides a critical overview of the current published research and identified gaps Through this it aims to equip accounting academics with information and tools to motivate them to research the field of accounting education to improve teaching and learning It also aids in the identification of suitable research topics in this regard and highlights potential pitfalls in researching accounting education The book therefore focuses on accounting educators as specialists in their respective disciplines Different authors with a keen interest in a specific area relating to accounting education research wrote each chapter in this book It forms a planned collective work assembled by appropriately qualified and experienced scholars in the accounting education field which generates a new conceptual synthesis that advances scholarship of accounting education research since no such synthesis currently exists for accounting education research in South Africa

Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience

Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Sandra Mantu, 2016-05-23 Labour migration has been on the agenda of many countries around the globe at the same time as governments of both sending and receiving countries have been trying to develop regulatory mechanisms This book opens the debate on the global politics of labour migration by proposing a re assessment of the interaction between states regarding labour migration Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts from five different continents each contribution engages with the changing landscape of migration control and teases out emerging control patterns dynamics and correlations that can be made between them and existing control paradigms The multidisciplinary and global focus in Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration sheds much needed light on the mechanisms deployed by states in their attempts to control labour migration and on the manner in which these mechanisms impact upon migrants themselves leaving some caught up in the politics of labour market control
