THE RACE IS NOT TO THE SWIFT, NOR THE
BATTLE TO THE STRONG; NEITHER IS THE BREAD TO THE WISE, NOR THE WEALTH TO

Not To The Swift English Edition:

On Translation Di JIN, Eugene Albert NIDA, 2006-03-01 Following the theoretical framework Nida had developed over decades of work on translation and semiotics the two authors offer an easily comprehensible analysis of the complex problems involved in translation After a critical review of the historical development of translation theory in the light of modern information theory they elucidate the most fundamental principles of translation in accordance with the concept of dynamic equivalence The treatment is closely related to actual translation practice and the principles elucidated are applicable to all types of translation though most of the examples analyzed are taken from translations between Chinese and English This new and expanded edition has two main parts Part I is the complete text of the original work as published in the early 1980s Part II consists of six of Professor Jin's more recent essays which provide further insights into the principle of equivalent effect and its applications in literary translation Particular attention is paid to practical procedures and the extremely complex relationship between creative translation and real fidelity Published by City University of Hong Kong Press

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson, Ian R. Willison, 1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Preventing Unjust War Roger Bergman, 2020-12-15 Catholic pacifists blame the just war tradition of their Church That tradition they say can be invoked to justify any war and so it must be jettisoned This book argues that the problem is not the just war tradition but the unjust war tradition Ambitious rulers start wars that cannot be justified and yet warriors continue to fight them The problem is the belief that warriors do not hold any responsibility for judging the justice of the wars they are ordered to fight However unjust a command renders any war just for the obedient warrior This book argues that selective conscientious objection the right and duty to refuse to fight unjust wars is the solution Strengthening the just war tradition depends on a heightened role for the personal conscience of the warrior That in turn depends on a heightened role for the Church in forming and supporting consciences and judging the justice of particular wars As Saint Augustine wrote The wise man will wage just wars For unless the wars were just he would not have to wage them and in such circumstances he would not be involved in war at all A Commentary, Critical, Experimental, and Practical, on the Old and New Testaments, by the Rev. R. Jamieson, Rev. A. R. Fausset ... and the Rev. David Brown. [With the Text.] , 1866
