UPSC Solved Paper 2016 UPSC Practice Papers Tastes Like Chicken Emelyn Rude,2016-08-02 From the domestication of the bird nearly ten thousand years ago to its current status as our go to meat the history of this seemingly commonplace bird is anything but ordinary How did chicken achieve the culinary ubiquity it enjoys today It s hard to imagine but there was a point in history not terribly long ago that individual people each consumed less than ten pounds of chicken per year Today those numbers are strikingly different we consumer nearly twenty five times as much chicken as our great grandparents did Collectively Americans devour 73 1 million pounds of chicken in a day close to 8 6 billion birds per year How did chicken rise from near invisibility to being in seemingly every pot as per Herbert Hoover s famous promise Emelyn Rude explores this fascinating phenomenon in Tastes Like Chicken With meticulous research Rude details the ascendancy of chicken from its humble origins to its centrality on grocery store shelves and in restaurants and kitchens Along the way she reveals startling key points in its history such as the moment it was first stuffed and roasted by the Romans how the ancient obsession with cockfighting helped the animal reach Western Europe and how slavery contributed to the ubiquity of fried chicken today In the spirit of Mark Kurlansky's Cod and Bee Wilson's Consider the Fork Tastes Like Chicken is a fascinating clever and surprising discourse on one of America's favorite foods Taming Indian Inflation Mr.Paul Cashin,Rahul

Anand,2016-02-25 High and persistent inflation has presented serious macroeconomic challenges in India in recent years increasing the country's domestic and external vulnerabilities A number of factors underpin India's high inflation This book analyzes various facets of Indian inflation the causes consequences and policies being implemented to manage it Several chapters are devoted to analyzing and managing food inflation given its significance in driving overall inflation dynamics in India Recolonizing Africa Mariam Mniga,2024-03-19 Explaining how the legacy of colonialism and the nature of the liberal economy play a significant role in the development of Africa today keeping Africa poor and dependent this book explains how trade liberalization deregulation and privatization had opened doors for the New Scramble for Africa Green technology and the high demand for electronics have intensified Africa's role as a supplier of raw materials natural resources and cheap labor and as a large market of more than one billion people in the global economy This unique ethnographic study with elements of autoethnography starts with the author's journey to Bulyanhulu Tanzania one of the largest gold mines in Africa and moves to a broader analysis that reveals the systemic violence of resource extraction Focus groups interviews and observations demonstrate the lack of distributive justice and intersectional equality in the process of land acquisition and resource extraction described by villagers in racialized and gendered terms as exploitative and part of a racist system that fails to provide a fair distribution of benefits to local people Recolonizing Africa examines resource conflicts among local people governments and transnational corporations from Europe North America and Asia revealing how global systemic violence and irresponsible business practices precipitate economic inequality between African and financially rich nations threatening peace and security indigenous rights and the environment Competitiveness and Death Gary

Winslett,2021-03-09 Competitiveness and Death examines the increase and reduction of regulatory barriers to trade across three industries environmental labor and safety rules on automobiles consumer protection regulations on meat and intellectual property regulations on medicines The fundamental negotiation in trade and regulatory policymaking occurs between businesses activists and government officials Gary Winslett builds on new trade theories to explain when and why businesses are most likely to lobby governments to reduce these regulatory trade barriers He argues that businesses prevail when they can connect with broader concerns about national economic competitiveness He examines how activist organizations overcome collective action problems and defend regulatory differences arguing that they succeed when they can link their desire for barriers with preventing needless death Competitiveness and Death provides a political companion to new trade theories in economics questioning cleavage based explanations of trade politics demonstrating the underappreciated importance of activists suggesting the limits of globalization providing in depth examination of previously ignored trade negotiations qualifying the California Effect the shift toward stricter regulatory standards and showing the relative rarity of regulations used as disguised protectionism

Governance, Conflict, and Natural Resources in Africa Hany Gamil Besada, 2021-04-22 A country's abundant natural resources may serve as a curse or a blessing with the outcome often dependent on prevailing governance structures and experience managing these assets Despite natural resource advantages many African countries have failed to transform their enormous economic potential and wealth into tangible benefits such as sustainable socio economic development human security or peace Governance Conflict and Natural Resources in Africa reevaluates the role that foreign state owned and private sector actors play in resource rich states whether stable post conflict or fragile in sub Saharan Africa Through research and an analysis of in depth interviews with local stakeholders in Ghana Sierra Leone and Ethiopia Hany Besada explains how foreign state owned and private sector corporations have contributed to economic growth at both the national and local levels in different resource rich countries This book reveals the unique challenges and opportunities created by these investors demonstrating that new policies in business practices and operations have the potential to generate sustainable development and positive economic transformation Governance Conflict and Natural Resources in Africa puts forward a novel framework for understanding the role of private economic actors in extractive industries in Africa and sheds new light on foreign private sector contributions to capacity building and economic development

The African Continental Free Trade Agreement: Welfare Gains Estimates from a General Equilibrium Model Mr. Lisandro Abrego, Maria Alejandra Amado, Tunc Gursoy, Garth P. Nicholls, Hector Perez-Saiz, 2019-06-07 In March 2018 representatives of member countries of the African Union signed the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA agreement This agreement provides a framework for trade liberalization in goods and services and is expected to eventually cover all African countries Using a multi country multi sector general equilibrium model based on Costinot and Rodriguez Clare 2014 we estimate the welfare effects of the AfCFTA for 45 countries in Africa Three different model specifications comprising both perfect competition and monopolistic competition are used Simulations include full elimination of import tariffs and partial but substantial reduction in non tariff barriers NTBs Results reveal significant potential welfare gains from trade liberalization in Africa As intra regional import tariffs in the continent are already low the bulk of these gains come from lowering NTBs Overall gains for the continent are broadly similar under the three model specifications used with considerable variation of potential welfare gains across

countries in all model structures

New Challenges to Food Security Ian Christoplos, Adam Pain, 2014-11-13 Food security is high on the political agenda. Fears about societal insecurity due to food price increases and hunger grave scenarios regarding the effects of climate change and general uncertainty about the impacts of investments in biofuels and so-called land grabbing on food prices and availability have meant that food security is now recognised as being a multifaceted challenge. This book is unique in that it will bring together analyses of these different factors that impact on food security. This volume will describe a range of different perspectives on food security with an emphasis on the various meanings that are applied to food security crisis. The challenges to be reviewed include market volatility, climate change and state fragility. Analyses of responses to food security crises and risk will cover rural and urban contexts, arenas of national policy formation and global food regimes and investment in land and productive technologies. This book is unique in two respects. First, it takes a step back from the normative literature focused on specific factors of, for example, climate change, agricultural production or market volatility to look instead at the dynamic interplay between these new challenges. It helps readers to understand that food security is not one discourse but is rather related to how these different factors generate multiple risks and opportunities. Second, through the case studies, the book particularly emphasises how these factors come together at local levels as farmers, entrepreneurs, consumers, local government officials and others are making key decisions about what will be done to address food security and whose food security will be given priority. The book will explore how food production and consumption is embedded in powerful political and market forces and how these influence local actions.

Endangered Steven Wilson, 2025-09-01 Endangered: The Javan Rhino Story by Dr Steve Wilson is a compelling blend of memoir, wildlife science and conservation adventure. Spanning a six-year PhD journey through the dense jungles of Java, this book reveals the rarely seen world of one of Earth's most elusive animals, the Javan rhino. With warmth and curiosity, Dr Wilson shares discoveries about their communication, social and wallowing behaviours and the practical steps he uncovered to expand their shrinking habitat and food sources. But this is not just a research log. It is an engaging and personal narrative filled with stories of local wildlife, unexpected encounters, community connections and collaborations with national park staff and rhino protection teams. Through humour, honesty and scientific insight, Dr Wilson brings to life the urgency of saving this endangered species while inviting readers into the heart of conservation. Both informative and entertaining, this is a unique window into a world few ever get to see.

Crisis and Promise in the Caribbean Winston Dookeran, 2016-03-09 The Caribbean is made up of a complex enigmatic region characterised by great disparities in size population geography history language religion race and politics This is a region in which harmony and discord work in tandem trying to link economic logic with political logic This book is a useful tool not only for those specialists and students of regionalism but for all those putting their hands to the task of nation building and those interested in the development processes of small states and economies At the same time this book is a comprehensive historical record especially highlighting hindrances to development in this region This study raises two important issues the political imperative of convergence and the need for appropriate correcting mechanisms that align the needs of the local with the regional It is a volume that underlines the need for a change in strategy and makes proposals as to how to go about making those changes

Estimating the Effects of the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) on Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) Diego A. Cerdeiro, 2016-05-23 In February 2016 twelve Pacific Rim countries signed the agreement on the Trans Pacific Partnership TPP one of the largest and most comprehensive trade deals in history While there are several estimates of the likely effects of the TPP there is no systematic study on the effects on all Latin American countries We present the results from applying a multi sector model with perfect competition presented by Costinot and Rodriguez Clare 2014 The exercise based on input output data for 189 countries and 26 sectors shows that i Asian TPP members are estimated to benefit most from the agreement ii negative spillovers to non TPP LAC countries appear to be of a different order of magnitude than the gains of members and iii some non TPP LAC countries may experience relatively large benefits from joining the TPP As a cautionary note however we point out that even a cursory cross study comparison shows that there is considerable uncertainty regarding the potential effects of the TPP for both members and non members
