Question Paper Of History In November 2014

Lyndsay Galpin

Question Paper Of History In November 2014:

Transatlantic Anarchism during the Spanish Civil War and Revolution, 1936-1939 Morris Brodie, 2020-04-08 Between 1936 and 1939 the Spanish Civil War showcased anarchism to the world. News of the revolution in Spain energised a moribund international anarchist movement and activists from across the globe flocked to Spain to fight against fascism and build the revolution behind the front lines. Those that stayed at home set up groups and newspapers to send money, weapons and solidarity to their Spanish comrades. This book charts this little known phenomenon through a transnational case study of anarchists from Britain, Ireland and the United States using a thematic approach to place their efforts in the wider context of the civil war, the anarchist movement and the international left.

Western European Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations T. Watson,2015-04-08 The National Perspectives on the Development of Public Relations Other Voices series is the first to offer an authentic world wide view of the history of public relations It will feature six books five of which will cover continental and regional groups This book in the series focuses on Western Europe Kin Majorities Eleanor Knott,2022-08-15 In Moldova the number of dual citizens has risen exponentially in the last decades Before annexation many saw Russia as granting citizenship to or passportizing large numbers in Crimea Both are regions with kin majorities local majorities claimed as co ethnic by external states offering citizenship among other benefits As functioning citizens of the states in which they reside kin majorities do not need to acquire citizenship from an external state Yet many do so in high numbers Kin Majorities explores why these communities engage with dual citizenship and how this intersects or not with identity Analyzing data collected from ordinary people in Crimea and Moldova in 2012 and 2013 just before Russia's annexation of Crimea Eleanor Knott provides a crucial window into Russian identification in a time of calm Perhaps surprisingly the discourse and practice of Russian citizenship was largely absent in Crimea before annexation Comparing the situation in Crimea with the strong presence of Romanian citizenship in Moldova Knott explores two rarely researched cases from the ground up shedding light on why Romanian citizenship was more prevalent and popular in Moldova than Russian citizenship in Crimea and to what extent identity helps explain the difference Kin Majorities offers a fresh and nuanced perspective on how citizenship interacts with cross border and local identities with crucial implications for the politics of geography nation and kin states as well as broader understandings of post Soviet politics UGC NET History Solved Previous Year Papers | 25+ Papers | 2012 Onwards | On Page Solutions Mocktime Publication, UGC NET History Solved Previous Year Papers 25 Papers 2012 Onwards On Page Solutions Male Suicide and Masculinity in 19th-century Britain Lyndsay Galpin,2022-04-07 This book shows how interpretations of suicidal motives were guided by gendered expectations of behaviour and that these expectations were constructed to create meaning and understanding for family friends and witnesses Providing an insight into how people of this era understood suicidal behaviour and motives it challenges the assertion that suicide was seen as a distinctly feminine act and that men who took their own lives were feminized as a result Instead it shows that masculinity was understood in a more nuanced way than gender binaries allow and that a man's masculinity was measured against other men Focusing on four common narrative types the love suicide the unemployed suicide the suicide of the fraudster or speculator and the suicide of the dishonoured soldier it provides historical context to modern discussions about the crisis of masculinity and rising male suicide rates It reveals that narratives around male suicides are not so different today as they were then and that our modern model of masculinity can be traced back to the 19th century Augmented Brett King,Andy Lark,Alex Lightman,JP Rangaswami,2016-05-15 The Internet and smartphone are just the latest in a 250 year long cycle of disruption that has continuously changed the way we live the way we work and the way we interact The coming Augmented Age however promises a level of disruption behavioural shifts and changes that are unparalleled While consumers today are camping outside of an Apple store waiting to be one of the first to score a new Apple Watch or iPhone the next generation of wearables will be able to predict if we're likely to have a heart attack and recommend a course of action We watch news of Google's self-driving cars but don't likely realise this means progressive cities will have to ban human drivers in the next decade because us humans are too risky Following on from the Industrial or machine age the space age and the digital age the Augmented Age will be based on four key disruptive themes Artificial Intelligence Experience Design Smart Infrastructure and HealthTech Historically the previous ages brought significant disruption and changes but on a net basis jobs were created wealth was enhanced and the health and security of society improved What will the Augmented Age bring Will robots take our jobs and AI's subsume us as inferior intelligences or will this usher in a new age of abundance Augmented is a book on future history but more than that it is a story about how you will live your life in a world that will change more in the next 20 years than it has in the last 250 years Are you ready to adapt Because if history proves anything you don't have much of a choice
