Beyond International Intervention Katarina Kušić, 2025-03-27 Studies of statebuilding and peacebuilding have been criticized for their disregard of people living the consequences of intervention projects Beyond International Intervention takes on the task of engaging with spaces and peoples not usually present in IR scholarship to rethink the very concept of intervention by paying close attention to how people actually experience and make sense of those efforts In particular the book offers a detailed engagement with ethnographic fieldwork in two policy areas in Serbia agricultural policy and non formal youth education By engaging with subjects the book not only enhances our understanding of intervention but also uncovers the limitations of the concept Katarina Kušić argues that the concept limits what we can observe and theorize and it prevents researchers from engaging with the people living in spaces of intervention as coeval political subjects As an alternative she proposes to foreground improvement over intervention This reorientation enables researchers to trace hierarchies beyond the local international dichotomy expands fields of visibility beyond those prescribed by interventions themselves and seriously considers the contradictions at the heart of liberalism The Prairie Farmer ,1862 Clark's Horse Review ,1901
