Creating Literacy-rich Schools for Adolescents Gay Ivey, Douglas Fisher, 2006 Offers a whole school program for improving the literacy skills of secondary school students

Sharon M. Draper KaaVonnia Hinton, 2008-12-04 Known for her commitment to excellence in education Sharon Draper was named National Teacher of the Year in 1997 In 1994 her first novel Tears of a Tiger was published and since then she has written more than fifteen books for middle and high school readers Tears of a Tiger received the John Steptoe Award for

New Talent and her novels Forged by Fire and Copper Sun have both won the Coretta Scott King Award. Most of her books have been featured on the American Library Association Best Books list, their Top Ten Quick Pick list, and IRA's Young Adult Choice list. In Sharon M. Draper Embracing Literacy, author KaaVonia Hinton reveals how Draper became an exceptional teacher and writer and how she uses her writing to urge young people to embrace literacy. Hinton also explores how Draper has made a lasting contribution to the field of young adult literature. This book-length study examines both her life and work and will benefit all students, teachers, and scholars in the field of young adult literature. School Library Journal, 2004

The Power of Teacher Talk Deborah Bieler, 2018-11-23. Whereas most studies of either teacher retention or student dropouts focus on big picture policy implications, The Power of Teacher Talk makes the case that the most important factor for keeping teachers and students in school is the everyday interactions between teacher and student, recognizing the key role of classroom teachers in addressing both problems. 100 Most Popular African American Authors Bernard A.

Drew, 2006-11-30. Here's a one-stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with complete lists of their works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree, with a few classic literary giants also included. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors? Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable, particularly for some of the newer authors, and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate. Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers, the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors. Here's a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works. Short profiles provide an overview of the author's life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments. Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author. The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author's published works. Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years, this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers, Octavia Butler, and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley, Omar Tyree, and Zane. A few classic literary giants who are popular with today's readers are also included, e.g., Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, and Richard Wright. Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors, students researching AA authors for reports and papers, and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable. High school and up. Facilitating Youth-Led Book Clubs as Transformative and Inclusive Spaces Jody N. Pollock, 2022. Learn how to integrate book clubs into secondary school communities for transformation and inclusion so as to enhance and nurture students' literacies along with their social and emotional development Using her extensive experiences with culturally neurologically and linguistically diverse students the author provides a rich resource that demonstrates how book clubs serve as critical places where adolescents can develop as readers while simultaneously working to build authentic relationships with their peers Polleck offers research and theories grounded in culturally sustaining pedagogies and healing centered engagements along with practical strategies for book club facilitators from developing specific student centered pedagogical approaches to embodying critical and humanizing dispositions Book Features Guidance based on the author s 25 years of experience as a facilitator and researcher of book clubs A focus on encouraging meaningful participation identity and community building and social justice An approach that prioritizes collaboration among teachers social workers counselors administrators parents and other school personnel Practical strategies that include facilitation suggestions sample lesson plans and reflective questioning techniques Engaging narratives that center the voices of students who have participated in book clubs An accompanying website with suggested reading lists teaching materials classroom activities and more
