Rosa And Blanca Story:

Do the Blind Dream? Barry Gifford, 2011-01-04 Do the Blind Dream shows Gifford at the height of his powers navigating with ease the new more fragmented imaginative landscape of morning after America Gifford seems to have anticipated themes that suddenly are recognizable everywhere the fragility of identity the power of coincidence the illusion of a secure tomorrow In contrast to his often nightmarish satirical groundbreaking novels of the 1990s Wild at Heart Perdita Durango and Night People among them Do the Blind Dream continues in the tender and deeply introspective vein revealed in two recent works Gifford's memoir The Phantom Father named a New York Times Notable Book and the award winning novella Wyoming From the intimate stylistically daring examination of the darkest secrets in the history of an Italian family to the terrible but often beautiful fears and discoveries of childhood to the sardonic desperate confusion of adult life Do the Blind Dream reveals an exceptionally versatile highly tuned sensibility History of Spanish Literature George Ticknor, 1864
