of time You won't find any ridiculous ideas here like subliminal learning while you sleep Everything here has been tested by me from scratch and is from real world experience I have personally invested 10 years and thousands of dollars on learning the best most efficient way to learn languages I wish that I could have been able to buy the knowledge and information presented in this book when I first started out It could have saved me a lot of trouble time and money Many people waste thousands of dollars or more on audio programs textbooks classes and other language learning materials What if this book saved you from wasting money on even one of those If this book saved you even just one hundred hours of studying what would that be worth to you Probably a lot more than the cost of this book A lot of people start out learning a language and then give up somewhere in the middle never reaching fluency and wasting all the energy time and money they spent getting somewhere in the middle Make sure you are not one of those people and invest today to discover what really works and how you can get to fluency quickly and efficiently The English Review Ford Madox Ford, 1913 Teaching Academic

Writing as a Discipline-Specific Skill in Higher Education Ezza, El-Sadig Y., Drid, Touria, 2019-12-27 It is now held that writing influences and is influenced by the discipline where it occurs The representations that writers employ to produce and comprehend texts are said to be sensitive to the specificities of their disciplinary discourse communities This exposes writers to divergent disciplinary demands and expectations on what counts as good and appropriate writing in terms of generic structure discourse features and stylistic preferences reflecting dissimilar practices Because of such exigencies academic writing seems at times to be very challenging especially for novice scholars Thus any attempt to perceive the function of academic writing in higher education or to evaluate its quality should not discard the shaping force of the disciplines Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline Specific Skill in Higher Education is a critical scholarly resource that examines the role of writing within academic circles and the disciplinary practices of writing in scholastic environments The book will also explore the particular difficulties that confront writers in the disciplines as well as the endeavors of educational institutions to develop discipline specific writing traditions among practicing and novice scholars Featuring a range of topics such as blended learning data interpretation and knowledge construction this book is essential for instructors academicians administrators professors researchers and students Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning Notes and Queries ,1908 Learn to speak and write Kannada in 30 days ,
