Local Language Testing Xun Yan, Slobodanka Dimova, April Ginther, 2023-07-18 This book describes language testing practices that exist in the intermediate space between large scale standardized testing and classroom assessment an area that is rarely addressed in language testing literature Drawing empirical research on a variety of languages the volume discusses local language tests ability to represent local contexts and values explicitly and purposefully embed test results within instructional practice and provide data for program evaluation and research Although local testing practices have been grounded in the theoretical principles of language testing the authors in this volume supplement the theoretical content with practical examples of how local tests can be designed to effectively function within and across different institutional contexts

Assessing Speaking in Context M. Rafael Salaberry, Alfred Rue Burch, 2021-07-23 This edited volume investigates the nature and possible applications of an expanded and reconceptualized theoretical construct of speaking as a dynamic socially constructed endeavour It addresses both theoretical perspectives and methodological procedures to define and circumscribe the assessment of contextualized speaking. The chapters focus on the complexity brought about by actual interactional competence in speaking tasks and discuss how testing and assessment models and practices can incorporate recent research findings on the inherently dynamic and situated nature of language use. The volume presents research on language assessment in a variety of languages other than English including French, Chinese and Japanese. It also examines the role that embodied action, gaze, gesture, orientation to materials and texts in the environment plays in assessment practices, an area that has heretofore remained underexplored. English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners Mikyung Kim Wolf, Yuko Goto Butler, 2017-05-25. English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners provides both theoretical and empirical information about assessing the English language proficiency of young learners. Using large scale standardized English language proficiency assessments developed for international or U.S. contexts as concrete examples, this volume illustrates rigorous processes of developing and validating assessments with considerations of young learners' unique characteristics. In this volume, young learners are defined as school age children from approximately 5 to 13 years old learning English as a foreign language (EFL) or a second language (ESL). This volume also discusses innovative ways to assess young learners' English language abilities based on empirical studies, with each chapter offering stimulating ideas for future research and development work to improve English language assessment practices with young learners. English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners is a useful resource for students, test developers, educators and researchers in the area of language testing and assessment.

Contemporary ELT Strategies in Engineering Pedagogy S. Mekala, Geetha R, 2022-03-17. This book explores innovative pedagogical practices and teaching and learning strategies in the engineering curriculum for empowered learning. It highlights the urgency for developing specific skill sets among students that meet the current market recruitment needs.
