Boe, Abby Coykendall,2016-04-22 The resurgence of marriage as a transnational institution same sex or otherwise draws upon as much as it departs from enlightenment ideologies of sex gender and sexuality which this collection aims to investigate interrogate and conceptualize anew Coming to terms with heteronormativity is imperative for appreciating the literature and culture of the eighteenth century writ large as well as the myriad imaginaries of sex and sexuality that the period bequeaths to the present This collection foregrounds British European and to a lesser extent transatlantic heteronormativities in order to pose vital if vexing questions about the degree of continuity subsisting between heteronormativities of the past and present questions compounded by the aura of transhistoricity lying at the heart of heteronormativity as an ideology Contributors attend to the fissures and failures of heteronormativity even as they stress the resilience of its hegemony reconfiguring our sense of how gender and sexuality came to be mapped onto space how public and private spheres were carved up or gendered and sexual bodies socially sanctioned and finally how literary traditions scholarly criticisms and pedagogical practices have served to buttress or contest the legacy of heteronormativity Grand Designs Lara Kriegel,2008-01-02 Combines cultural and labor history of Victorian Britain to investigate the relationship of culture to design the role of the marketplace in the making of cultural institutions such as museums and England's eventual loss of industrial superiority Eccentric Nation Stephen Albert Rohs,2009 The book takes as its point of departure the notion that a nation's music and performance culture was in the nineteenth century conceived of as the voice of its people From ballads to parades to plays to orations these cultural forms carried the burden of staging an identity for the national community and for the onlooking eyes of outsiders Empire Islands Rebecca Weaver-Hightower,2007 Through a detailed unpacking of the castaway genre's appeal in English literature Empire Islands forwards our understanding of the sociopsychology of British Empire Rebecca Weaver Hightower argues convincingly that by helping generations of readers to make sense of and perhaps feel better about imperial aggression the castaway story in effect enabled the expansion and maintenance of European empire Empire Islands asks why so many colonial authors chose islands as the setting for their stories of imperial adventure and why so many postcolonial writers write back to those island castaway narratives Drawing on insightful readings of works from Thomas More's Utopia to Caribbean novels like George Lamming's Water with Berries from canonical works such as Robinson Crusoe and The Tempest to the lesser known A Narrative of the Life and Astonishing Adventures of John Daniel by Ralph Morris Weaver Hightower examines themes of cannibalism piracy monstrosity imperial aggression and the concept of going native Ending with analysis of contemporary film and the role of the United States in global neoimperialism Weaver Hightower exposes how island narratives continue not only to describe but to justify colonialism Rebecca Weaver Hightower is assistant professor of English and postcolonial studies at the University of North Dakota SPIN ,2005-07 From the concert stage to the dressing room from the recording studio to the digital realm SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear With dynamic photography bold graphic design and informed irreverence the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds Whether covering what's new or what's next SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks Black in the Saddle Again Arthur Black,1998-03 Spin ,2005 Encounter Stephen

Spender, Irving Kristol, 1973      Encounter, 1973      Political Quotations Jean F. Thomsett, 1994 Over 4000 quotations whose sources range from Plato to contemporary politicians like H Ross Perot and Bill Clinton are gathered in this new collection Each entry includes the date of the quotation and indicates whether it was taken from a speech or a written work There are indexes by author and by keyword according to the entry number The Macmillan Dictionary of Political Quotations Macmillan 1993 includes more quotations 11 000 and arranges entries by different subject categories e g abortion energy gun control and obscenity However it only indexes them by author and concept rather than by the useful keyword It too ranges from the classics to contemporaries like Clinton and Perot though different quotes are sometimes given for the same people Therefore both sources are recommended for a well rounded political science collection Louise A Treff Univ of Colorado at Denver Lib Library Journal      Who Said What When, 1990-12-31 Originally published in the UK in 1988 Bloomsbury Publishing this dictionary contains some 7 000 quotes arranged in time period chapters that are broken down into categories politics government and world events attitudes sayings of the time and comments made with hindsight Time periods are briefly introduced Thoroughly indexed by keyword and name Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Macmillan Dictionary of Quotations Macmillan Publishing Company, 1989 Informative and fascinating this is an innovative reference work that sets anew standard for usefulness in quotation books      Rum, Sodomy & The Lash,
