Desarrollo local y dinámicas territoriales Jaime Escribano Pizarro, Adrián Ferrandis Martínez, 2022-05-06. A modo de homenaje al profesor Joan Noguera Tur se recogen las veinticinco aportaciones que se publicaron en el número en línea que le dedicó TERRA Revista de Desarrollo Local en el verano de 2021 y que ahora se materializan en una obra en papel con el fin de poder llegar a todos aquellos que de un modo u otro han estado siempre cerca de Joan. Estas aportaciones se organizan en cuatro grandes bloques que coinciden con las secciones de la revista. Así, el primero presenta dieciséis artículos científicos firmados por compañeros y compañeras de Joan tanto del ámbito nacional como internacional. El segundo bloque recoge tres aportaciones nacionales en forma de notas y avances de investigación. En el tercero encontramos dos buenas prácticas y experiencias en desarrollo local ambas enraizadas en ámbitos próximos a Joan: el Instituto Interuniversitario de Desarrollo Local y la comarca de La Marina Alta. El cuarto y último bloque está constituido por cuatro reseñas sobre temáticas en las que Joan trabajó a lo largo de su carrera académica, en especial la de una de sus últimas obras que editó: La visión territorial y sostenible del desarrollo local. A modo de epílogo se recogen diversas fotografías que evidencian la implicación de Joan en todo lo que realizaba tanto desde el punto de vista profesional en la investigación y en la docencia como desde el relacional.

Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones, Anssi Paasi, 2017-10-02. A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region. This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies. This book drives the discussion further. It stresses the complex forms of agency, advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context. The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions.

and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies Territorial Cohesion in Rural Europe Andrew Copus,Philomena de Lima,2014-08-13 This book reflects on how the economies social characteristics ways of life and global relationships of rural areas of Europe have changed in recent years This reveals a need to refresh the concepts we use to understand measure and describe rural communities and their development potential This book argues that Europe has outgrown many of the stereotypes usually associated with it with substantial implications for European Rural Policy Rural structural change and its evolving geography are portrayed through regional typologies and the concept of the New Rural Economy Demographic change migration business networks and agricultural restructuring are each explored in greater detail Implications for equality and social exclusion and recent developments in the field of governance are also considered Despite being a subject of active debate interventions in the fields of rural and regional development have failed to adapt to changing realities and have become increasingly polarized This book argues that rural regional policy needs to evolve in order to address the current complex reality partially reformulating territorial or place based approaches and the New Rural Paradigm following a set of principles termed Rural Cohesion Policy Leadership and Local Power in European Rural Development Imre Kovách,2017-05-15 Contemporary processes of economic social political and cultural restructuring are having profound impacts on the form and function of rural areas within the countries of the European Union and beyond Furthermore rural development policies and programmes at EU and national levels have been critical in shaping the responses of different rural areas across Europe to these wider processes of restructuring Contrasting empirical studies of ten European countries this volume provides a comprehensive analysis of the restructuring processes and the various national regional and local rural development programmes Adopting a different national perspective in each chapter it focuses particularly on issues of power and leadership in the evolution and administration of these programmes Five broad issues are examined in each case socio economic changes in rural areas the administrative context in which rural development and political activities take place the sociological context the political control of rural development and the use of different discourses of rurality in shaping the development process Winning and Losing Doris Schmied,2022-05-05 Instigated by technological and political change Europe s rural areas have undergone profound and all pervasive restructuring processes Although the impact of these processes has often been depicted negatively this is not always the case Bringing together a range of comparative case studies from France Finland Germany Greece Ireland Spain Sweden Portugal the UK and other countries this book provides a comprehensive and balanced picture of rural change over the past five decades It explores which aspects of the European countryside have benefited and which have suffered as a consequence of the often contradictory forces of restructuring The book looks into economic aspects as well as into the social impact of rural change The final part examines regional issues and illustrates how different rural areas have responded to the transformative pressures Evaluating the European Approach to Rural Development Grass-roots Experiences of the LEADER Programme Leo Granberg,Kjell Andersson,

Power and Gender in European Rural Development Henk de Haan,2017-11-28 Since the early 1990s new public and private actors emphasizing issues such as landscape nature environment and food safety have challenged EU rural development policies This book looks at this innovative framework and in particular the impacts of the interactions between established interests and newcomers in local power relations Specific attention has been given to the gendered nature of these processes Case studies from throughout Western Europe analyze local rural power relations and present overviews of the significance of rural gender relations The book demonstrates that traditional and new forms of social organization in rural areas create new forms of political participation Changing forms of social capital and political participation not only influence the relation between state and civil society but also male female relationships The book argues that the dynamics of these gendered power relations produce competing discourses which can often hinder policy making and implementation Rural Community Studies in Europe Jean-Louis Durand-Drouhin,Lili-Maria Szwengrub,2013-10-22 Rural Community Studies in Europe Trends Selected and Annotated Bibliographies Analyses Volume 2 documents studies concerning several rural areas in Europe The book presents information concerning a specific area which includes a review of historical trends annotated bibliography and an analysis of studies conducted on the area This volume particularly covers rural areas in the Netherlands Germany Hungary Italy and Finland This book will be of great interest to researchers who require information about rural communities Rural Europe Keith Hoggart,Henry Buller,Richard Black,1995 This book examines the interaction at national and international level of the economic political and social change processes within Europe that are bringing about fundamental transformations in rural areas Although such changes are experienced at a local level they are heavily imbued with a national tone given that European nations possess distinctive visions of their rural areas These rural identities set limits within which economic political and social agents can act Yet these limits are constantly being subjected to strain particularly with the globalization of economic activity and the strengthening impetus for integrated EC policies

Globalization and Europe's Rural Regions Dr John McDonagh,Prof Dr Birte Nienaber,Professor Michael Woods,2015-05-28 This book examines the multiple ways in which rural regions in Europe are being restructured through globalization and the regional development responses that they have adopted It provides an understanding of the key challenges and opportunities for rural regions arising from the major economic social political and cultural changes associated with globalization including trade liberalization and economic deregulation increased international migration and the rise of global consciousness about environmental issues Drawing on examples and findings from a major European research project DERREG the book presents detailed case studies of ten regions in different parts of Europe exploring the factors that lead to different experiences of globalization in each of the regions and highlighting examples of good practice in regional development responses The book concludes by proposing a typology of regional responses to globalization and considering the policy implications of the research findings As such Globalization and Europe's Rural Regions is important reading for geographers sociologists planners and economists interested in understanding the impact of globalization in rural regions and for rural development professionals seeking to mobilize effective responses

Neoendogenous Development in European Rural Areas Eugenio Cejudo, Francisco Navarro, 2020-01-01 This book is one of the main outcomes of the projects Development Programmes and Rural Change in the European Union governance results and lessons to share and Successes and failures in the practice of neoendogenous rural development in the European Union 1991-2013 funded both of them by the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness This publication aims on one side to clarify and deepen the knowledge of the social economic and territorial effects of the LEADER approach and on the other to analyze the importance of the participation of several stakeholders young people and women as well as some traditional activities agriculture or modern ones tourism linked all of them to the rich cultural and natural heritage of these areas It also provides an in depth study of the causes that lead to the generation of successful projects in the practice of neoendogenous rural development and also explores the reasons that cause certain projects to fail in the path towards LEADER support so that they are finally not implemented In addition it is shown the problems results and best practices that cause the neoendogenous rural development in different areas inside of the European Union Austria Finland France Germany Italy Spain and United Kingdom Thereby it helps to improve the decision making in rural development both on a local and regional scale The multidisciplinary and international character of the authors as well as the specificity of the research trajectory of each of them in the analysis of rural development enriches the publication and facilitates the different and critical reflections on the contributions errors and meaning of the neoendogenous local development Researchers in this discipline and technicians working in the practice of rural development along the European Union are the main audience of the book

Translocal Ruralism

Charlotta Hedberg, Renato Miguel do Carmo, 2011-10-05 Rural areas are often viewed as isolated and stagnating areas and urban areas as their opposites. Against such a backdrop, this book seeks to unveil a set of dynamics that view rural areas as translocal in the sense that they are changing and interconnected. Social transformations take place in rural areas as the result of intense exchanges between different people, settings, and geographies. Accordingly, rural-urban but also rural-rural interrelations on international and national scales are strongly contributing to rural change. Translocal ruralism is exemplified through the analysis of local and global migratory flows, the activities of rural firms in national and global arenas, the spread of different forms of transportation and dislocation, and the growing information society which enables rural spaces to be connected to the world and improves new ways of interconnection and sociability practices. The book is structured into two parts which intertwine the dynamics of rural spaces. The first part, Linking nodes: people and networks, connecting places, is concerned with mobilities such as migration and commuting and the establishment of national and global networks. The second part, International mobilities: a tension between scales, analyses the dynamics of international migration and mobilities in rural areas. Shaping Rural Areas in Europe Luís Silva, Elisabete Figueiredo, 2013-06-17

Shaping Rural Areas in Europe: Perceptions and Outcomes on the Present and the Future sets out to investigate the effect of urban perceptions about the rural and consequent demands on rurality on the present and future configurations of rural territories in Europe in the early twenty-first century. This volume presents and discusses a broad range of case studies and theoretical and methodological approaches from different academic fields, mainly Anthropology, Sociology, and Geography.

Young People in Rural Areas of Europe Birgit Jentsch, 2017-07-05 Based on a two-year European research project on policies and young people in rural development, this edited volume examines these issues and compares young people's experiences of rural life in the UK, Ireland, Finland, France, Germany, Austria, and Portugal. It reviews relevant policies and highlights not only the pressures on young people in rural areas but also what might be done to address these issues.
