Father-Child Relations Barry S. Hewlett, 2017-09-04 Due to a greater involvement of American fathers in the direct care of their children in recent years interest in the impact and nature of the father s role in nurturing children has increased While studies about fathers in the industrialized literate West have proliferated little is known about the role of fathers in the preliterate non Western world This collection examines the diversity of paternal roles found in human cultures among various types of societies that are very peaceful and those that actively engage in warfare as a mode of existence Father Child Relations recognizes the importance of understanding both biological and cultural aspects of the father s role Many of the contributors utilize evolutionary or biosocial models including those of developmental psychology to examine the father s role while others rely upon the symbolic analysis of cultural and social anthropology One chapter is devoted to male infant relationships in nonhuman primates a further largely ignored comparative perspective The anthropologists who have contributed to this collection are field workers who have lived intimately over significant periods of time with the people about whom they are writing These research reports from the field have been edited to make them wholly accessible to the non specialist The contributors of this volume recognize that biology and ideology are intertwined both together influence the father s behavior and the effects of his behavior

Building Stronger Communities with Children and Families (2nd Edition) Karl Brettig, 2019-11-18 This book highlights key principles emerging from the process of implementing an entire community and government approach to supporting families at risk of vulnerability Drawing on the expertise of a number of practitioners and researchers it also examines the efficacy of some of the early intervention and prevention strategies developed through the Australian Communities for Children initiative It will be of particular interest to community services education and child welfare practitioners and policy makers involved with or contemplating involvement in implementing a place based collective impact approach to child development wellbeing and protection How can we better engage with families at risk in a digital world How can we deliver holistic integrated support How can we redesign our family support systems What kind of leadership and governance will it take to implement the kind of systems change that delivers improved outcomes These are critical questions we need to engage with if we are to collaboratively redesign inadequate siloed approaches and build family friendly communities that improve the lives of children and families Voices-- Visions--, 1996 A compilation of winning essays written by 6 7 9 10 12 13 15 and 16 19 age groups These essays describe their dreams of how to improve the quality of life for their people someday or how they plan to use their education to fulfill their dreams of making the quality of life better for their people Oswaal Karnataka SSLC | Chapterwise & Topicwise | Question
