Bawarshi, Mary Jo Reiff, 2010-03-08 GENRE AN INTRODUCTION TO HISTORY THEORY RESEARCH AND PEDAGOGY provides a critical overview of the rich body of scholarship that has informed a genre turn in Rhetoric and Composition including a range of interdisciplinary perspectives from rhetorical theory applied linguistics sociology philosophy cognitive psychology and literary theory Critical Thinking Gabriel Dawson, 2025-05-26 Are you tired of feeling overwhelmed by complex problems constant overthinking or emotional decision making In today's fast paced and information saturated world the ability to think clearly and rationally is no longer optional it's essential Whether you're navigating high stakes business choices dealing with personal conflicts or simply trying to be more confident in your daily decisions this book will give you the tools to transform the way you think What You'll Discover Inside The Foundations of Critical Thinking Understand what critical thinking really is and isn't Learn how to identify flaws in arguments avoid being manipulated and train your mind to respond with clarity instead of confusion How to Recognize and Defeat Cognitive Biases From confirmation bias to availability heuristics discover the psychological traps that distort your thinking and how to overcome them Effective Problem Solving Strategies Use step by step frameworks like mind mapping root cause analysis and logical questioning to approach any challenge with structure and calm Decision Making Under Pressure Learn how to keep a cool head in emotional or high stress situations and make decisions that align with your long term goals instead of temporary impulses How to Manage Overthinking and Mental Noise Break the cycle of analysis paralysis and emotional spirals with actionable methods based in neuroscience and behavioral psychology Build Emotional Intelligence and Mental Resilience Improve self awareness empathy and your ability to navigate social dynamics while staying grounded and rational Read Between the Lines Decode body language detect manipulation and see through emotionally charged rhetoric or misleading arguments Who Is This Book For This book is ideal for Professionals who want to sharpen their decision making in the workplace Students who want to train their logic and analytical skills Entrepreneurs and leaders who must navigate uncertainty Anyone who struggles with anxiety indecision or emotional overwhelm Readers interested in philosophy psychology self development or stoicism Whether you're debating negotiating problem solving or simply trying to make better life choices this book will help you approach every situation with a clear and structured mindset Real Results Not Fluff You won't find vague theory or motivational fluff Instead you'll get concrete exercises real life examples and 19 practical strategies you can implement immediately Critical Sexuality Studies, Lavender Languages, and Everyday Life Michelle Marzullo, William L. Leap, 2024-09-05 Critical Sexuality Studies CSS and Lavender Languages Linguistics LLL are leading modes of inquiry in two different fields of sexuality studies In this edited collection chapters reveal how these can be combined to produce a new approach to analyzing language use sexuality and gender and discourse on authority and power The book demonstrates how together LLL and CSS iterate each other through their mutual concern with sexuality gender and power especially when considering the materiality of daily life Authors then compare CSS to other fields of sexuality studies to reveal commonalities and tensions that are addressed via the LLL based interventions exemplified in this volume The body of the book organizes examples of Lavender Languages projects around a four part CSS framework with an introductory essay for each section indicating the connections between the CSS theme and the LLL examples The volume concludes with reflections showing how CSS interests in sexuality and power benefits from LLL with its emphasis on socially focused studies of discourse and text Strengthening pathways to future knowledge making this book provides a detailed roadmap for scholarly and activist engagements in language centered critical sexuality studies

Tell Me a Story Anthony Tate Fulton, Christopher B. Field, Michael MacBride, 2017-09-25 Stories have great power This book attempts to harness that power to help students grow and develop as writers It argues that stories and narratives can be utilized in the composition classroom specifically first year composition FYC to break down barriers Throughout a given semester stories and narratives can help students in composition courses to overcome academic personal and creative barriers establishing a space for developing as writers and thinkers Providing theoretical approaches practical methods and implications for using stories in FYC this book explores the versatility of stories as teaching tools

Thinking in Place Carol Becker, 2015-11-17 Carol Becker preeminent arts educator and contributor to leading art magazines offers a beautifully poignant meditation on the role of place in artistic creativity She focuses on place as a historical physical entity and a conceptual site where ideas come into meaning The book explores places from the coal mining towns of western Pennsylvania to the Birla House where Gandhi was shot to the sinking city of Venice A cross between theory memoir and history her writing creates the experiential effect of being in specific places as well as imagining the evolution of ideas as they are manifested in museums and often become agents for social change

Charitable Writing Richard Hughes Gibson, James Edward Beitler, 2020-12-15 How might we love God and our neighbors through the task of writing This book offers a vision for expressing one's faith through writing and for understanding writing itself as a spiritual practice that cultivates virtue Drawing on authors and artists throughout the church's history we learn how we might embrace writing as an act of discipleship for today

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction

Fostering Habits of Mind in Today's Students Jennifer Fletcher, Adela Najarro, Hetty Yelland, 2023-07-03 Co published with and Students need more than just academic skills for success in college and career and the lack of an explicit instructional focus on the soft skills critical to postsecondary success poses a challenge for many students who enter college especially the underprepared Based upon a multi campus cross disciplinary collaboration this book presents the resulting set of habits of mind based strategies that demonstrably help not only low income ESL and first generation college students overcome obstacles on the path to degree completion these strategies equally benefit all students They promote life long integrative learning and foster intellectual qualities such as curiosity openness flexibility engagement and persistence that are the key to developing internalized and transferrable competencies that are seldom given direct attention in college classrooms This contributed volume written with full time and adjunct faculty in mind provides the rationale for this pedagogical approach and presents the sequential instructional cycle that begins by identifying students assets and progressively focusing on specific habits to develop their capacity to transfer their learning to new tasks and situations Faculty from both two year and four year colleges provide examples of how they implement these practices in English math and General Education courses and demonstrate the applicability of these practices across course types and disciplines Chapters address key factors of college success including The link between habits of mind and student retention and achievement Using an assets based approach to teaching and learning Supporting and engaging students Creating inclusive learning communities Building confidence and self efficacy Promoting transfer of learning Teacher networks and cross disciplinary collaboration By foregrounding habits of mind as an instructional lens this book makes a unique contribution to teaching in developmental and general education settings

Critical Expressivism
Tara Roeder, Roseanne Gatto, 2015-04-15 Critical Expressivism is an ambitious attempt to re appropriate intellectual territory that has more often been charted by its detractors than by its proponents Indeed as Peter Elbow observes in his contribution to this volume As far as I can tell the term expressivist was coined and used only by people who wanted a word for people they disapproved of and wanted to discredit The editors and contributors to this collection invite readers to join them in a new conversation one informed by a belief that the term expressivism continues to have a vitally important function in our field

Doing Time, Writing Lives Patrick W. Berry, 2018-01-24 Winner Coalition for Community Writing Outstanding Book Award 2019 Doing Time Writing Lives offers a much needed analysis of the teaching of college writing in U S prisons a racialized space that despite housing more than 2 million people remains nearly invisible to the general public Through the examination of a college in prison program that promotes the belief that higher education in prison can reduce recidivism and improve life prospects for the incarcerated and their families author Patrick W Berry exposes not only incarcerated students hopes and dreams for their futures but also their anxieties about whether education will help them Combining case studies and interviews with the author s own personal experience of teaching writing in prison this book chronicles the attempts of incarcerated students to write themselves back into a society that has erased their lived histories It challenges polarizing rhetoric often used to describe what literacy can and cannot deliver suggesting more nuanced and ethical ways of understanding literacy and possibility in an age of mass incarceration
