November 2013 Grade 1e G D Paper 1

Professor Eunice Ivala

November 2013 Grade 1e G D Paper 1:

A Handbook for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Stephanie Marshall, Heather Fry, Steve Ketteridge, 2014-08-21 This entirely new edition of a very successful book focuses on developing professional academic skills for supporting and supervising student learning and effective teaching. It is built on the premise that the roles of those who teach in higher education are complex and multi-faceted. A Handbook for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education is sensitive to the competing demands of teaching, research, scholarship and academic management. The new edition reflects and responds to the rapidly changing context of higher education and to current understanding of how to best support student learning. Drawing together a large number of expert authors, it continues to feature extensive use of case studies that show how successful teachers have implemented these ideas. It includes key topics such as student engagement and motivation, internationalisation, employability, inclusive strategies for teaching, effective use of technology and issues relating to postgraduate students and student retention. Part 1 explores a number of aspects of the context of UK higher education that affect the education of students, looking at the drivers of institutional behaviours and how to achieve success as a university teacher. Part 2 examines learning, teaching and supervising in higher education and includes chapters on working with diversity, encouraging independent learning and learning gain. Part 3 considers approaches to teaching and learning in different disciplines, covering a full range including arts and humanities, social sciences, experimental sciences through to medicine and dentistry. Written to support the excellence in teaching and learning design required to bring about student learning of the highest quality, this will be essential reading for all new lecturers, particularly anyone taking an accredited course in teaching and learning in higher education, as well as those experienced lecturers who wish to improve their teaching practice. Those working in adult learning and educational development will also find the book to be a particularly useful resource. In addition, it will appeal to staff who support learning and teaching in various other roles. November 2019 Monthly Current Affairs with MCQs for Competitive Exams Disha Experts, 2019-10-21 ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Research Handbook on Student Engagement in Higher Education Cathy Stone, Sarah O'Shea, 2024-09-06 This cutting edge Research Handbook presents a comprehensive overview of key developments in the field of student engagement, with particular reference to equity and diversity issues. Promoting a more holistic and inclusive understanding of engagement, it highlights key empirical findings alongside practical case studies, presenting valuable recommendations for the field. This title contains one or more Open Access chapters. The Katangese Gendarmes and War in Central Africa Erik Kennes, Miles Larmer, 2016-07-04 A history of the 1960s unrecognized state's army and their role in Central Africa's political and military conflicts. Erik Kennes and Miles Larmer provide a history of the Katangese gendarmes and their largely undocumented role in many of the most important political and military conflicts in Central Africa. Katanga, located in today's Democratic Republic of Congo, seceded in 1960 as Congo achieved independence and the gendarmes fought as the unrecognized state's army during the Congo crisis Kennes and Larmer explain how the ex gendarmes then exiled in Angola struggled to maintain their national identity and return home They take readers through the complex history of the Katangese and their engagement in regional conflicts and Africa's Cold War Kennes and Larmer show how the paths not taken at Africa's independence persist in contemporary political and military movements and bring new understandings to the challenges that personal and collective identities pose to the relationship between African nation states and their citizens and subjects A fascinating story which is tied to the colonial development of Katanga province cold war politics in Central Africa the crisis of the postcolonial state in the Congo and the interregional politics in the Great Lakes area Georges Nzongola Ntalaja University of North Carolina A major contribution to our understanding of postcolonial politics in Africa more broadly and sheds light on the survival of militias over time and forms of subnationalism emerging from regional consciousness M Crawford Young University of Wisconsin Madison

Reframing Assessment to Center Equity Gavin W. Henning, Gianina R. Baker, Natasha A. Jankowski, Anne E. Lundquist, Erick Montenegro, 2023-07-03 This book makes the case for assessment of student learning as a vehicle for equity in higher education The book proceeds through a framework of why what how and now what The opening chapters present the case for infusing equity into assessment arguing that assessment professionals can and should be activists in advancing equity given the historic and systemic use of assessment as an impediment to the educational access and attainment of historically marginalized populations The what chapters offer definitions of emerging terms discuss the narratives of equity in evidence of student learning present models and approaches to promoting equity and explore the relationship between knowledge systems and assessment practice The how chapters begin by progressively moving from the classroom to the program then beyond the program level to share examples from student affairs Subsequent chapters address the problem of equitable access to STEM fields culturally responsive practices within the context of community colleges the ongoing work of culturally situated assessment practices in Historically Black Colleges and Universities and the role of technology enabled assessment as a possible tool for equitable assessment The final two chapters in the book address the now what providing a way for assessment professional to develop individual awareness within their practice as a next step in the equity journey and a conceptual framework to anchor equity in their work
