

Extended Essays are externally assessed by examiners and are marked on a scale from 0 to 36. This maximum score is made up of the total criterion levels available for each essay, and is divided between general and subject assessment criteria. The Extended Essay contributes to the overall diploma score through the award of up to three points in conjunction with Theory of Knowledge.

Theory of Knowledge in the IBDP

Theory of Knowledge, one of the connective courses of the IB Diploma Programme, is a two-year programme. It invites students to explore knowledge – how it is created, how it is internalised, and how it is shared. The curriculum is comprised of open-ended, thought-provoking questions and through them, students examine their role as a ‘knower’. It is understood that students do not enter this course as empty vessels to be filled with knowledge and wisdom; they are individuals who are already engaged in the process of creating, absorbing, consuming and selecting knowledge.

In order to develop a framework which facilitates analysis and discussion, two key categories are explored: ‘ways of knowing’ and ‘areas of knowledge’. This is done within the context of the student’s ‘knower’s perspective’. Students are encouraged to examine and challenge their own assumptions. They also learn to recognise, compare, and evaluate issues of certainty, justification, belief, evidence, and truth within key bodies of human knowledge.

Throughout the programme, students engage in discussion, reading, and forums (both online and in class). Individual and small group presentations are also routinely included. Two formal evaluations are eventually undertaken. Each student is required (individually or in a small group) to create and deliver a presentation which is directly related to a knowledge challenge. This is internally assessed and moderated by IB. The second requirement is to complete a 1200-1600 word essay on one of ten topics prescribed by IB; this is externally evaluated.

Creativity, Action and Service (CAS)

Students in Grades 11 and 12 participate in the Creativity, Action and Service (CAS) Programme, an experiential and holistic learning programme which develops ‘the whole’ student by encouraging engagement in ‘the whole’ world beyond the classroom and is at the heart of the Diploma Programme. It puts into practice our commitment to nurturing well-rounded, compassionate global citizens of the 21st century who exemplify the IB Learner Profile and seek to make our world a better place.

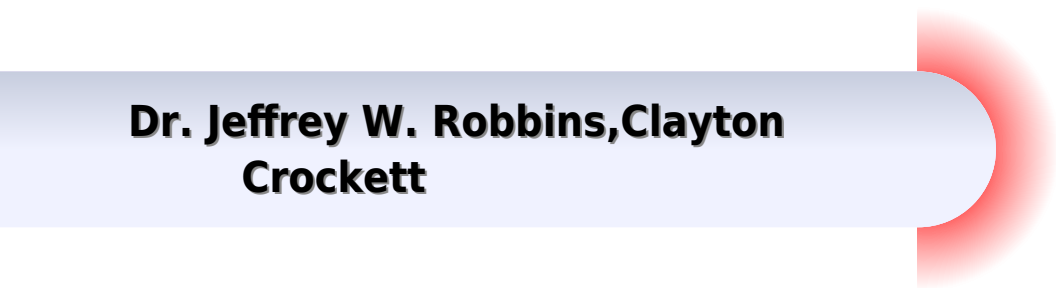

The CAS programme involves three key strands: creativity, where students experience the arts and creative thinking; action, where an active healthy lifestyle is explored; and service, where students are involved in voluntary positions supporting school, local and global communities.

Students design a programme that is challenging, yet enjoyable, encompassing eight key learning objectives:

- increased awareness of their strengths and areas for growth
- undertaking new challenges
- planning and initiation of activities
- working collaboratively with others
- showing perseverance and commitment in their activities

Rethinking the American Labor Movement Elizabeth Faue, 2017-04-28 Rethinking the American Labor Movement tells the story of the various groups and incidents that make up what we think of as the labor movement While the efforts of the American labor force towards greater wealth parity have been rife with contention the struggle has embraced a broad vision of a more equitable distribution of the nation's wealth and a desire for workers to have greater control over their own lives In this succinct and authoritative volume Elizabeth Faue reconsiders the varied strains of the labor movement situating them within the context of rapidly transforming twentieth century American society to show how these efforts have formed a political and social movement that has shaped the trajectory of American life Rethinking the American Labor Movement is indispensable reading for scholars and students interested in American labor in the twentieth century and in the interplay between labor wealth and power

Collective Myopia in Japanese Organizations Nobuyuki Chikudate, 2015-10-07 Drawing on European philosophies this book examines collective myopia and its role in global business through various case studies of Japanese organizations including the Tokyo

Electric Power Company The Personal Life of Debt Ryan Davey, 2025-05-23 As the cost of living rises British households face unprecedented levels of debt But many commentators characterise those who stash away envelopes leave telephones ringing or hide from debt collectors as irresponsible The first full length ethnography of debt problems in Britain this book uses long term fieldwork on a southern English housing estate to give a sensitive retelling of the everyday lives of indebted people It argues that the inequalities of debt go beyond economic questions to include the way state coercion hinders people s efforts to define what they truly value Indeed from finance to housing and even parenthood the potential for dispossession has become a pervasive method of power that strikes at the heart of personal life Food and Cooking Skills Education Anita Tull, 2018-01-29 Food and Cooking Skills Education FCSE is a complex mix of policy and practicality educational theory and pedagogy classroom and government policy This book shows how FCSE has been at the centre of a tussle between education and policy for decades It reviews how FCSE has grappled with various significant issues of concern that threaten to marginalise it and pose problems for educational practicalities as expectations are increased but resources are squeezed It assesses the debate about the significance and importance of acquiring practical food and cooking skills in a society where the purchase of ready made food has become commonplace and public knowledge of where our food comes from is noticeably lacking This has contributed to the escalating incidence of diet related diseases and the attendant cost to society and threatened environmental sustainability In turn governments have reacted by proposals to make practical cooking skills a statutory National Curriculum subject as part of the armoury for tackling such costs Based on detailed research conducted across England and Wales as well as comparisons with thirty five other countries or states the author makes recommendations for policy to manage this challenge facing contemporary society Deepening Democracy Joseph Tharamangalam, Jos Chathukulam, 2022-12-30 This book examines the renewed interest and commitment that countries across the world have shown in recent decades towards adopting models of decentralising or downsizing the state and moving towards more participatory models of government It examines systems of decentralised development such as self managing co operatives from a global and comparative perspective with a focus on developing countries Drawing on examples from Kerala and a few other states in India as well as Cuba Bangladesh and South Africa among other countries the book offers critical perspectives on the positive impacts of these experiments and the promises these offer for the future It discusses the challenges of implementing these models how well these work in coordination with the civil society and the state issues of transparency and democratic oversight as well as corruption and capture of power due to entrenched structures of inequality The volume analyses welfare and development models and self management interventions in countering the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic It also looks at the merits and demerits of decentralisation in countering the global socioeconomic and environmental crisis and the rise of authoritarian populism in many countries The book will be of interest to students and researchers of development studies political science business community development social justice as well as of co operative management programmes It will also appeal to students of political economy as well as development professionals think tanks and policymakers Doing Theology in the Age of Trump Dr. Jeffrey W. Robbins, Clayton Crockett, 2018-11-08 This book is a work of theological resistance It is not so much about the presidency of Donald Trump as it is about what his popularity and rise to power reveal about the state of Christianity and the moral character of the evangelical Right in the United States today More specifically it is about the threat of white Christian nationalism which is the particular form that the nationalist populist movement of Trumpism has adopted for itself The contributors are all fellows from the Westar Institute s academic seminar on God and the Human Future and include many of the leading figures in theology and Continental philosophy of religion This volume provides a form of theopolitical resistance based on intersectionality The authors recognize how the various forms of oppression interrelate to contribute to a vast dynamic and seeming impenetrable network of systemic injustice and marginalization These essays demonstrate that politics need not be played as a zero sum game with a winner take all mentality and that a critical theology is as urgently needed and as relevant now as ever
