Read 2007 Summer

Jim Trelease, Cyndi Giorgis

Read 2007 Summer:

Independent Reading Denise N. Morgan, Maryann Mraz, Nancy D. Padak, Timothy Rasinski, 2013-12-09 This indispensable book shows how to incorporate independent reading into daily literacy instruction in the primary grades. Provided are class-tested strategies for engaging students in independent reading, creating and organizing the classroom library, developing mini lessons, and different kinds of reading routines supporting struggling readers, monitoring and assessing independent reading, and promoting reading at home. Helpful reproducibles are included. From a team of highly regarded educators, this is a wise and user-friendly resource that teachers can immediately put to use in the classroom. Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development, promote literature appreciation, and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork. Supporting Reading Grades 6-12: A Guide addresses head-on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students' motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum, which stands for Read as a personal activity, Explore characteristics, history, and awards of creative works, Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works, Develop a literary-based product, and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly, describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals, in groups, and as school communities support classroom teachers' instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry/information skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner. Children's Services Betsy Diamant-Cohen, 2010-05-31 Betsy Diamant-Cohen, past president of the Maryland Library Association's Children's Services Division, gathers 18 examples of outreach partnerships to serve as inspiration for librarians and library administrators. Librarians from around the country describe their award-winning programs, including reading readiness initiatives, story times for children with speech and language delays, serving children of incarcerated parents, and teaching storytelling to youth. The ideas are grouped in sections on partnership with community organizations, law enforcement, academic institutions, children's museums, cultural institutions, and business. Publisher: Children's Services. Dr. Betsy

Diamant-Cohen, 2010-05-31 Betsy Diamant-Cohen brings together 18 examples of successful outreach partnerships that children's librarians and administrators can adapt to their own situations. Read to Succeed Joy Court, 2011-08-31 Concern about children's reading is an international issue highlighted by continuing OECD research. Government actions such as the priority given to reading in the review of the National Curriculum reflect current UK concern. Reading is an essential life skill not only for an individual's development and life chances but for social cohesion and a developed democracy. In an era of public spending cuts it is important to reflect upon the impact that libraries can have in growing readers for the future This much needed book provides valuable evidence of successes so far both nationally and internationally and offers ideas for future development as well as inspiration for current practice An edited collection contributed by expert practitioners it covers all aspects of promoting reading to and with children and young people from birth right through to teenage years including the following key topics the importance of Bookstart how children begin to read creating young readers literacy libraries and literature in New Zealand the Summer Challenge in libraries Stockport does Book Idol restoring reading to the classroom promoting excellence shadowing the CILIP Carnegie and Kate Greenaway medals local book awards the sport of reading libraries and partnerships the hard to reach reader in the 21st century creative reading Readership Offering future scoping for managers and aiming to inspire partnership and cooperation this will be invaluable reading for practitioners and students of librarianship in both the public and school sectors It will also be of great interest to all teachers consultants and educators concerned with literacy and reading and to policy makers in both the school and library sectors

The Power of Story Joan Wink Ph.D.,2017-11-07 Through this book readers will discover that stories can move the human heart and head in ways that research cannot Stories bring together readers writers librarians teachers students and families in the libraries of today and will continue to do so tomorrow Written for all those lovers of literacy this book links libraries and literacies through the power of stories The book is not filled with data in the form of pie charts graphs and tables Rather the truth of the research is grounded in authentic stories that reflect not only the interpretation of data but also the transformative nature of literacies and libraries The author s primary goal is that readers will come to value and use storytelling in their own professional and personal lives to explain and expand on complex concepts and to make information more accessible for all The book begins by presenting anecdotes and the author s personal story to lay the foundation for what literacies are and what literacy is not An activity Spiral of Literacy allows readers to reflect on their own literacies Chapters that follow each begin with a story that sets the theoretical foundation Each chapter concludes with an action section that demonstrates how to turn theory to practice whether you are in a library a classroom or at home A final chapter envisions what libraries might look like in 10 years through interviews with librarians teachers and others interested in literacy

Building Communities of Engaged Readers Teresa Cremin,Marilyn Mottram,Fiona M. Collins,Sacha Powell,Kimberly Safford,2014-06-20 Reading for pleasure urgently requires a higher profile to raise attainment and increase children s engagement as self motivated and socially interactive readers Building Communities of Engaged Readers highlights the concept of Reading Teachers who are not only knowledgeable about texts for children but are aware of their own reading identities and prepared to share their enthusiasm and understanding of what being a reader means Sharing the processes of reading with young readers is an innovative approach to developing new generations of readers Examining the interplay between the will and the skill to read the book distinctively details a reading for pleasure pedagogy and demonstrates that reader engagement is strongly influenced by relationships between children teachers families and communities Importantly it provides compelling evidence that reciprocal reading communities in school encompass a shared concept of what it means to be a reader in the 21st century considerable teacher and child knowledge of children s literature and other texts pedagogic practices which acknowledge and develop diverse reader identities spontaneous inside text talk on the part of all members a shift in the focus of control and new social spaces that encourage choice and children s rights as readers Written by experts in the literacy field and illustrated throughout with examples from the project schools it is essential reading for all those concerned with improving young people s enjoyment of and attainment in reading
