Hugh Hastings's Seagulls Over Sorrento to well known mega hits such as The Mousetrap and The Phantom of the Opera. Such popular work has tended to be undervalued by some critics and commentators mainly because it has not been thought to be a suitable subject for inclusion in the canon of English Literature. By contrast Sierz demonstrates that genres such as the British musical, light comedy, sex farce or murder mystery are worth appreciating not only for their intrinsic theatrical qualities but also as examples of the dream life of the British people. The book challenges the idea that mega hits are merely escapist entertainments and instead shows how they contribute to the creation of powerful myths about our national life. The analysis of such shows also points towards the possibility of creating an alternative history of postwar British theatre.

The Theatre Guide Trevor R. Griffiths, 2014-07-04 With over 500 entries on the most important plays and playwrights performed today, The Theatre Guide provides an authoritative A-Z of the contemporary theatre scene. From Aristophanes to Mark Ravenhill, The Alchemist to The Talking Cure, the Guide is both biographically detailed and critically current, while an extensive cross-referencing system allows for wider perspectives and new discoveries. Stimulating, observant and informative, The Theatre Guide is an essential companion and reference tool for anyone with an active interest in drama.

Tookey's Turkeys Christopher Tookey, 2015-03-28 Tookey's Turkeys identifies the worst 144 movies of the last 25 years. Christopher Tookey has seen at least 10,000 films. For eight years he was TV and then film critic for the Sunday Telegraph. For twenty years he was sole film critic for the Daily Mail and the world's most popular internet newspaper Mail Online. In 2013 he won the award Arts Reviewer of the Year from the London Press Club. This is a book about 144 of Christopher's least favourite movies. In his opinion, the movies we hate tell us as much about present-day culture as our favourites. All offer insights into the mindset of those who made or commissioned them. Virtually all make us aware of things we might rather not know about our culture and values, or lack thereof. Technically, movies are more advanced than ever before, yet paradoxically seldom have so many wrongheaded movies been made. And never have they plumbed the depths of ineptitude, depravity and risibility that they have over the last 25 years. The choice of films Christopher has disliked over the past two and a half decades may be controversial. Some movies he finds ridiculous have achieved critical acclaim. A few have won Oscars. But the fact that The Da Vinci Code, The Hangover II and Star Wars Episode III: Revenge of the Sith are among the most commercially successful movies of all time should not disguise the fact that they are also, in his opinion, bloody awful. Tookey's Turkeys will appeal greatly to the general reader and in particular to all film fans, including those who have followed Christopher's reviews over the years. In a companion volume, Tookey's Talkies, Christopher has written about the best 144 films that he has seen over the same period. Featured in The Bookseller March 2015. Non-Fiction picks: Film, TV, the Performing Arts.

Modern British Farce Leslie Smith, 1989-06-18 A study of the popular modern dramatists and the continuity of the farce tradition from Pinero to Travers, the Whitehall team and Orton, which examines and questions some of the common assumptions about its nature. Farce techniques are shown to be increasingly used in serious drama.
