Ruth Vander Zee Book:

Mississippi Morning Ruth Vander Zee, 2017-10-02 It's the middle of the Great Depression but James William still enjoys his life in rural Mississippi. But his happiness starts to unravel when he discovers the fire that burned down the local preacher's house wasn't an accident but a hate crime. When his friend LeRoy tells him about the Klan and their hanging tree, James William has a hard time grasping this harsh reality until an unexpected encounter brings the issue close to home.

Always With You Ruth Vander Zee, 2008-01-14 Orphaned at the age of four when her village in Viet Nam is bombed, Kim is rescued by soldiers and raised in an orphanage, always finding comfort in her mother's last words: "Don't be afraid, I will always be with you." Erika's Story Ruth Vander Zee, 2013-08-01 Erika's Story is one woman's account of the tragedy of the Holocaust. Erika is a survivor who recalls the difficult decisions her parents had to make and how those decisions have affected her life. Erika has a quiet hope and confidence which is sure to inspire readers. The exquisite illustrations of Roberto Innocenti are poignant and moving. The combination of words and pictures in this book speak not only to the reader's head but also to the heart. The foreign rights to Erika's Story have been sold in eleven countries.

Maven in Blue Jeans Steven L. Jacobs, 2009 This collection of academic essays have been written in tribute to Professor Zev Garber and are divided to reflect the areas in which Professor Garber has devoted his teaching and writing energies: the Holocaust, Jewish-Christian relations, philosophy and theology, history and biblical interpretation.

A Parent/Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance Bob Blumenthal, 2005 How do you teach children to value peace and appreciate diversity? One way is to provide them with books with themes that promote these ideas. The Parent Teacher Guide to Children's Books on Peace and Tolerance offers readers a wide variety of award-winning titles along with annotations and grade-level recommendations. The book is divided into the following sections: Preschool, grade three, Grades 4-6, Middle school, and High school. Each section has over 100 listings. Topics include civil rights, the Holocaust, slavery, Native Americans, bullying, war, child abuse, bigotry, cooperation, acceptance, apartheid, family relationships, Arab-Israeli conflict, controlling anger, the Civil War, the Vietnam War, WWII, gays and lesbians, and other social issues. Many of these books are the recipients of the following awards and honors: Newbery Award, School Library Journal starred review, Caldecott Award, Boston Globe Horn Book Award, American Library Association Notable Book, Jane Addams Children's Book Award, American Bookseller Pick of the List, Kirkus Reviews starred review, Publishers Weekly starred review, Booklist starred review, Coretta Scott King Award, VOYA Top Picks, National Book Award, and the Michael L. Printz Award. This guide is an excellent resource for parents who would like their children to become peace-loving, accepting adults. Teachers who are looking for books to supplement their curriculum will find the suggested titles to be among the best-written works in the designated areas. For example, one would be hard-pressed to find a better-written book on the Holocaust for middle and high school students than I Have Lived One Thousand Years. The author has done a great service by providing parents and teachers with a list of books that cannot be found anywhere else. A Study Guide for Jane Yolen's "Suzy and Leah" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Jane Yolen's Suzy and Leah excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs The Really Useful Drama Book Roger McDonald, 2017-07-14 The Really Useful Drama Book offers busy primary school teachers a collection of step by step drama sessions inspired by high quality picturebooks that will engage children and promote enjoyable learning across the curriculum Lively and thoughtful the interactive drama sessions are structured around a wide range of texts including wordless picturebooks postmodern picturebooks short stories well known texts by recognisable authors and some you may not have come across before all chosen for their power to foster curiosity The step by step sessions can also be adapted to incorporate your own ideas and passions allowing you to structure them for the topics you're exploring with your class Each session is structured around two texts and offers a guide to the drama strategies used teaching objectives ideas for writing opportunities problems emotions and challenges to explore and a clear guide to exploring each text Ten key themes are explored Suspense Prejudice Friendship Rhyme and rhythm War and conflict Nature Overcoming fear Possessions and obsessions Dreams Short stories With a focus on the crucial role of imagination in the classroom The Really Useful Drama Book helps reclaim a purposeful passionate pedagogy and shows teachers how drama can place children right at the heart of a story encouraging their desire to ask questions solve problems and search out new information Powerful Readers Kyla Hadden, Adrienne Gear, 2016-10-14 At any age or grade level powerful readers are those who are aware of their thinking as they read The assumption is that high school students don't need to be taught how to read but even if they can decode words and gain literal understanding they often don't think deeply about what they are reading Presenting a balance of theory and practical lessons Powerful Readers demonstrates that instruction in the key strategies of connecting visualizing questioning inferring determining importance and transforming can help students develop their reading skills and get more out of their work with fiction and nonfiction Step by step lessons for introducing and using the strategies connections to literary devices and reading lists for each strategy are all part of this valuable resource Mastering Writing at Greater Depth Adam Bushnell, Angela Gill, David Waugh, Rob Smith, 2020-02-29 How do teachers identify the potential for greater depth writing and encourage children to meet their full potential This book was created by people who are not only passionate about primary education but who are also leading experts in their own particular areas They have made use of their wide experience to offer practical guidance on greater depth writing while underpinning this with theoretical understanding We hope that reading this book helps you to reflect on what greater depth writing looks like and how you can encourage children to write at greater depth You will find many suggestions for teaching lessons that encourage children to write at greater depth underpinned by theory Deepening Literacy Learning Mary Ann Reilly, Jane M. Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L.

Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present. As the only reference volume of its kind available, this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature. Whether one is a student, a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection, or a scholar of children's literature, the fourth edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults. The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author/illustrator entries, the addition of approximately 50 new profiles, and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature.

Genocide in Contemporary

Children's and Young Adult Literature Jane Gangi, 2014-03-14 This book studies children's and young adult literature of genocide since 1945, considering issues of representation and using postcolonial theory to provide both literary analysis and implications for educating the young. Many of the authors visited accurately and authentically portray the genocide about which they write; others perpetuate stereotypes or otherwise distort, demean, or oversimplify. In this focus on young people's literature of specific genocides, Gangi profiles and critiques works on the Cambodian genocide (1975-1979), the Iraqi Kurds (1988), the Maya of Guatemala (1981-1983), Bosnia, Kosovo, and Srebrenica (1990s), Rwanda (1994), and Darfur (2003-present). In addition to critical analysis, each chapter also provides historical background based on the work of prominent genocide scholars. To conduct research for the book, Gangi traveled to Bosnia, engaged in conversation with young people from Rwanda, and spoke with scholars who had traveled to or lived in Guatemala and Cambodia. This book analyses the ways contemporary children, typically ages ten and up, are engaged in the study of genocide and addresses the ways in which child survivors who have witnessed genocide are helped by literature that mirrors their experiences.

Inviting Writing Adam Bushnell, David Waugh, 2017-02-27 With recent research findings by The National Literacy Trust indicating that 1 in 2 children enjoy writing, should primary school teachers be using it more? There are opportunities for teaching and learning writing in all subjects and all lessons. Inviting Writing supports you to find these opportunities and to plan, assess, and develop children's writing for a range of purposes in a range of styles Chapters cover every curriculum subject and explore the unique writing opportunities for each one It helps you to focus on teaching the skills of composition and on taking writing forward Examples of good practice are included throughout alongside suggestions for teaching activities This book also outlines the many ways in which children s writing can be evidenced and encourages you to reconsider the ways in which children s progress in writing can be tracked and captured This is a practical guide to teaching writing across the curriculum Vanderzee Deborah Willis-Braithwaite,1998-09-01 One of the great American photographers of the 20th century and the leading African American photographer of his day James VanDerZee is best remembered as the eyes of the Harlem Renaissance Reproduced here are many of the thousands of photographs he took in New York s Harlem between the wars 200 photos A to Zoo Rebecca L.
