Levy, 2024-05-13 A World of Private Higher Education is the definitive treatment of a sector accounting for a third of the world's 200 million higher education enrolment yet remaining largely unknown even to scholars of higher education and widely mischaracterized when it is considered by stakeholders or the general public Beyond the eye popping numbers several inter-related thematic findings regarding the Private and the Public underscore the subject matter's importance First private/public differences are significant it matters that so many students are in a sector that not long ago was only marginal in much of the world Second private higher education PHE itself is increasingly diverse with significant and private/public differences Third the overlaying of the first two realities yields increasing diversity in private/public higher education distinctions Especially for its pioneering mapping of PHE globally regionally and nationally the book draws on the pioneering dataset of the pioneering scholarly program for research on PHE Program for Research on Private Higher Education Unprecedented in geographical scope the dataset is unprecedented in longitudinal coverage too dating back to 2000 Empirical methods allow for extensive analysis and theoretical analysis draws on key private/public concepts embedded in literatures on privatization nonprofit studies and policy models For the major challenge of penetrating inside the increasingly diverse private sector of higher education Levy revises his heralded and widely employed PHE typology English Language Education Policy in Asia Robert Kirkpatrick,2015-11-27 This volume offers comprehensive state of the art overviews of educational policies concerning the teaching of English in a large number of Asian countries Each contribution is written by a leading expert and gives a clear assessment of current policies and future trends Starting with a description of the English education policies in the respective countries the contributors then delve into the nuts and bolts of the English education policies and how they play out in practice in the education system in schools in the curriculum and in teaching Topics covered include the balance between the acquisition of English and the national language political cultural economic and technical factors that strengthen or weaken the learning of English The Middle East and South Asia 2014 Malcolm Russell,2014-08-21 This volume is designed to place in context the passionate controversies and emotional attachments of the two billion people who live study work love and die in the Middle East and South Asia Understanding these regions means more than annually updated details of the governments politics cultures and economies of the twenty four nations and assorted territories Special chapters address significant issues of continuing international importance including access to water the role of oil and the 2011 Arab spring Both regions after all contain types of people misunderstood and often intensely disliked by others Where religion intrudes on politics the Afghan Taliban oppose educating girls Hindu fanatics rampage in India Iranian militiamen shoot demonstrators Islamic extremists impose sharia and Jewish Ultra Orthodox send women to the back of the bus readers bombarded with superficial news bites and slanted reporting might never sense the other accomplishments of these same societies Islamic charities and societies bring relief to the impoverished Israel s scholars win Nobel prizes and most Indians cherish long standing religious toleration The author of this volume attempts to let the reader draw conclusions from the evidence The Report: Saudi Arabia 2015 Oxford Business Group,2015-09-22 While Saudi Arabia s economy remains dominated by its hydrocarbons sector several other sectors have emerged in recent years as key propellers of economic growth The Kingdom s financial services industries have continued to expand steadily despite the liquidity challenges posed by falling oil prices Trade and investment are being treated as key priorities as the government looks to negotiate this altered economic landscape aiming to leverage its large population high per capita income and many sea and air links The country s capital markets sector meanwhile is poised for a period of significant growth on the back of the opening of Tadawul to international investors in 2015 and the raft of regulatory upgrades implemented as result The domestic insurance industry which remains dominated by the motor and medical segments has enjoyed double digit growth over the past five years in both revenue and net profit Elsewhere the targets outlined in Vision 2030 indicate that a period of greater opportunity and integration is on the horizon for private players operating in core sectors such as health care utilities industry and ICT The Arab Lobby and the US Dania Koleilat Khatib,2015-10-23 All the components needed to construct an Arab lobby exist the significant Arab Diaspora in the US the historic strategic relationship between Arab Gulf States and the US and the Gulf's economic wealth. However, lobbying is alien to Arab culture and largely absent from its political landscape. To achieve a fair and objective assessment of Arab Gulf lobbying, it is necessary to have a thorough understanding of the prevailing Arab Gulf political culture that shapes it. The Arab Lobby and the US provides a timely contribution to this understanding. Studying attempts by Arab Gulf states to effectively lobby the US government, it explores aspects of their lobbying behaviour in order to identify the factors that lead to success and those that lead to failure from their lobbying endeavours. In this respect, the research utilizes two case studies: one in which Arab Gulf state lobbying was successful and another in which lobbying failed. In tandem with an analysis of the strategies or lack of them behind Arab Gulf states lobbying, the research examines additional relevant factors such as the organization and activism of the US Arab American community, the strategic value of the Arab Gulf to the US, and the negative image of Arabs in America. The book considers the obstacles to the establishment of an effective Arab Gulf lobby in the US in order to reach an informed conclusion that evaluates the prospects of an effective Arab Gulf lobby. As one of the few academic research works on the Arab Lobby, this work will be of value to scholars and policy makers interested in US domestic politics and Arab American activism, as well as students of Middle Eastern Studies, Arab Gulf studies, and communication and public relations among others.

The Transnational Mosque Kishwar Rizvi, 2015-10-08 Kishwar Rizvi drawing on the multifaceted history of the Middle East offers a richly illustrated analysis of the role of transnational mosques in the construction of contemporary Muslim identity As Rizvi explains transnational mosques are structures built through the support of both government sponsorship whether in the home country or abroad and diverse transnational networks By concentrating on mosques especially those built at the turn of the twenty first century as the epitome of Islamic architecture Rizvi elucidates their significance as sites for both the validation of religious praxis and the construction of national and religious ideologies Rizvi delineates the transnational religious political economic and architectural networks supporting mosques in Saudi Arabia Iran Turkey and the United Arab Emirates as well as in countries within their spheres of influence such as Pakistan Syria and Turkmenistan She discerns how the buildings feature architectural designs that traverse geographic and temporal distances gesturing to far flung places and times for inspiration Digging deeper however Rizvi reveals significant diversity among the mosques whether in a Wahabi Sunni kingdom a Shi i theocratic government or a republic balancing secularism and moderate Islam that repudiates representations of Islam as a monolith Mosques reveal alliances and contests for influence among multinational corporations nations and communities of belief Rizvi shows and her work demonstrates how the built environment is a critical resource for understanding culture and politics in the contemporary Middle East and the Islamic world
