attracted controversy through his journalism and his role in a racially charged murder trial Alternating between Romanian and American settings the novel is a profound indictment of official hypocrisy and corruption on both sides of the Iron Curtain LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries

Novels, 1944-1953 Saul Bellow, 2003 Celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of The Adventures of Augie March and reflects the mid twentieth century's psychological turmoil from more inhibited times in a volume that also includes The Victim and Dangling Man Novels, 1956-1964 Saul Bellow, 2007 Passionate insightful often funny and exhibiting a linguistic richness few writers have equaled the novels of Saul Bellow are among the defining achievements of postwar American literature The Library of America volume Novels 1956-1964 opens with Seize the Day a tightly wrought novella that unfolding over the course of a single devastating day explores the desperate predicament of the failed actor and salesman Tommy Wilhelm The austere psychological portraiture of Seize the Day is followed by an altogether different book Henderson the Rain King the ebullient tale of the irresistible eccentric Eugene Henderson best characterized by his primal mantra I want I want Beneath the novel's comic surface lies an affecting parable of one man's quest to know himself and come to terms with morality like Don Quixote Henderson is as Bellow later described him an absurd seeker of high qualities Henderson's irrepressible vitality is matched by that of Moses Herzog the eponymous hero of Bellow's best selling 1964 novel His wife having abandoned him for his best friend Herzog is on the verge of mental collapse and has embarked on a furious letter writing campaign as an outlet for his all consuming rage Bellow's bravura performance in Herzog launched a new phase of his career as literary acclaim was now joined by a receptive mass audience in America LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries Mosby's Memoirs and Other Stories Saul Bellow, 1996-06-01 What Henry James did for the geographically disoriented Bellow does for the culturally traumatized in the six stories gathered in this collection Truly Bellow is one of God's spies Los Angeles Times A Penguin Classic In six darkly comic tales Saul Bellow presents the human experience in all its preposterousness poignancy and pathos In the title story a professor well known for his wit struggles to animate his memoirs as he teeters on the brink of despair in the old System a distinguished biochemist tries to find room in his life for love and in A Father to Be a man is startled to find himself seated next to his future adult son on a New York subway The other stories too reflect Bellow's special ability to depict men and women confronting in highly idiosyncratic ways the enigmas and oddities of existence For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Collected Stories Saul Bellow, 2013-08-27 A collection of treasured stories by the unchallenged master of American fiction A Penguin Classic Nobel Prize winner Saul Bellow has deservedly been celebrated as one of America's greatest writers For more than sixty years he stretched our minds our imaginations and our hearts with his exhilarating perceptions of life Here collected in one volume and chosen by the author himself are favorites such as What Kind of Day Did You Have Leaving the Yellow House and a previously uncollected piece By the St Lawrence With his larger than life characters irony wisdom and unique humor Bellow presents a sharp rich and funny world that is infinitely surprising With a preface by Janice Bellow and an introduction by James Wood this is a collection to treasure for longtime Saul Bellow fans and an excellent introduction for new readers For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators
