11. Describe Hester's appearance and mental state during this time period.

On the outside Hester exhibits the somber manner the Puritans demand of her. She wears dark and coarse clothing and interacts with the community only in her work and in her charitable acts. Her passionate nature is hidden and repressed from her outward life. Internally, she feels isolated and lonely but accepts this as her lot.

12. Give at least three examples of Hester's treatment by the community.

Everyone, rich and poor, makes comments on Hester about her sin. Clergymen preach sermons about her behavior. Children, imitating their parents' behavior, tease her in the streets. Strangers, unaware of her situation, stare in judgement at her.

13. Describe Pearl's personality and appearance.

Pearl is described as wild, defiant, mischievous, rebellious, perceptive, and perverse. Hester dresses her in colorful outfits, beautifully embroidered, but is unable to control the actions of her young daughter who remains isolated from other children.

14. Describe Pearl's reaction to the scarlet letter.

Even in her early Pearl seemed fascinated with the scarlet letter. She gazed at it in awe and smiled, causing her mother considerable anguish. Pearl constantly smiles knowingly at the letter, removing Hester's anguish each time she observes her child's wise smile. Once Pearl smilingly pulled the scarlet letter to her own, an action her mother already understood.

15. Mr. Wilson asks Pearl, "Canst thou tell me, my child, who made thee?" What is Pearl's answer?

She replies that she was pulled from the sea beach.

16. What convinced the Governor to let Hester keep Pearl?

Both Hester and Mr. Dimmesdale told the governor that Pearl was a constant reminder to Hester of her sin and that Hester was capable of being a good mother since she could pass along to Pearl the lessons she had learned since she had sinned.
