10. Journal of American Studies is a leading interdisciplinary literature journal, covering contemporary American fiction and non-fiction from 1945 to the present, including those authors whose work is increasingly being translated into English. It provides a forum for literary thought, and is a leading publication for literary scholarship. It is published by Cambridge University Press.

This essay and the paragraph to come, all under continuous double-blind, computer-graded automatic scoring, estimate that you read extremely well. It is not on the order of the score. It's almost as if you read your way. There are a lot of interesting points, important vocabulary, and a lot of your words are being picked up by the computer. So we are confident of the effectiveness of the system.
