Not A Happy Camper A Memoir:

Not a Happy Camper Mindy Schneider, 2008-05-20 A hilarious memoir of the author's terrible and wonderful summer at a Maine sleepaway camp in 1974 The Wall Street Journal For eight unforgettable weeks at Camp Kin a Hurra thirteen year old Mindy Schneider and her eccentric band of friends including Autumn Evening Schwartz the daughter of hippies who communicates with the dead and the sleep dancing bibliophile Betty Gilbert keep busy feuding in color wars failing at sports and uncovering their camp's hidden past As Mindy focuses on landing the perfect boyfriend and longs for her first kiss she unexpectedly stumbles across something infinitely grander herself Set in what now seems an almost impossibly innocent time the 1970s this sweet tale takes a nostalgic look back at the experience of attending sleepaway camp through the eyes of a 13 year old Jewish girl Schneider succeeds in provoking gentle flashbacks to a simpler shared time of teenage angst and hormone surges before cable television all recalled in a humorous tone Publishers Weekly Charming and hilarious Captures both the awkwardness and the magic of that age Jen Lancaster

A Family Memoir Renate Pore, 2015-11-13 This is the story of Lydia Marx Henricksen Lydia was born in 1925 in Giessen Germany and came of age in the 1930s and 1940s These were turbulent times in Germany as the nation suffered through revolution hyperinflation depression political violence and the catastrophe of World War II While the family fortunes suffered Lydia herself grew up secure and sheltered in a tight knit traditional German family She recalls her childhood and teenage years as full of fun She was a strong bright happy go lucky girl with a thirst for learning and ambition to move beyond the secure confines of the family and the traditional role of a German woman as that of Kinder Kueche Kirche Lydias comfortable life was changed when Germany began to mobilize for war All teenagers had to spend a year in service The family assets were seized Fathers uncles and brothers were inducted into the military to serve in France Russia Africa and other faraway places Women and children had to rely upon themselves At age fourteen as the oldest child in the family Lydia became the family's main breadwinner By age eighteen she was a single mother and by age nineteen she and her family began to experience the full force of the war as the battle was taken to the civilian population Intense aerial bombings by the British and the Americans destroyed many of Germany's beautiful old cities including Giessen and brought Germany to its knees Ever resilient Lydia adapted to the new circumstances and found her way through tragedy and loss Like so many other German women Lydia became a war bride and at age twenty eight began a new phase of her life in America It was a difficult transition but in America Lydia found opportunities that would have been denied to her in Germany She raised four children and had an exciting and successful career as a hospital administrator At age ninety she lives comfortably in her own home in Pacific Grove California a peaceful and quiet place on the beautiful central California coast

Call to Duty a Personal Memoir of World War II Roger A. Howard, 2010-10 All my life I grew up listening to my father tell stories of his life especially his wartime experiences I knew these stories had to be put into print for future generations to enjoy The events recounted here reflect the true voice of my father While reading the text I can picture a group of family and friends of all ages sitting around him captivated by his life s stories The favorites are always of the 78th Infantry Division and all the characters he fought with Now these stories will be told forever One from the Least and Disappearing Generation- a Memoir of a Depression Era Kid Clarence G. Oliver,2006-04-12 The Great Depression of the 1930s was a challenging time for most families especially those in the Dust Bowl states such as Oklahoma This is a true story of a young boy born just three months before the Crash of 1929 told with reflections on his growing up in Ada Oklahoma during the 1930s and 1940s as his and other neighborhood families struggled for survival and then recovered as the nation began to experience the Happy Days are Here Again promised by a new president Franklin Delano Roosevelt The book covers the childhood and youth years ending with high school graduation when writer recognizes that he has miles to go before I sleep Young Oliver hawked newspapers in Ada s downtown business area as a seven year old moved on to paper routes and other jobs and learned important life skills through family church work Scouting neighborhood activities and especially as he became the eyes for a loving blind grandfather who despite that handicap ran a small neighborhood store and taught the young man how to see with the mind s eye People and events remembered from childhood days are sometimes part fact and part perception The people existed and the events occurred The blending of reality with the thoughts and impressions left in the mind of a young child become the memories of an adult and are shared so that today s generation and future generations will know what life was like in that era These are reflections on the joys and trials neighborhood incidents play the murder of a neighbor falling in love memories of one person from the generation which was the smallest in number of all recent generations and one which is rapidly disappearing A Memoir of Love Jessiqua Wittman,2012-06-04 A post apocalyptic world an unlikely band of Revolutionaries this is the memoir of their struggles and triumphs A woman describes a refugee colony s dramatic rise to power The governmental shift was bound to happen the only question in the matter is who will be the leader of this new nation Written in first person this memoir provides an inside look at those whose lives are destined to become swallowed up and defined by political intrigue Great men and women go through all the same trials and temptations ordinary people go through the stakes are just much higher because everybody is watching them Summary: Rage: Bob Woodward: Disloyal: A Memoir: Michael Cohen: Too Much Is Never Enough: Mary L. Trump: Donald Trump V. The United States: Michael S. Schmidt SCOTT CAMPBELL,2020-12-01 NOTE Summaries are not intended to replace or substitute for the original books Woodward has the scoop no one else does for his book Rage because he interviewed Trump 17 times and climbed into his mind and thoughts over seven chaotic months Trump characterized the way he felt with an apt metaphor Dynamite behind every door Michael Cohen in Disloyal admits he was mesmerized by Trump like a cult member began to see himself breaking his moral code but stuck with Trump for money power and fame Cohen boasts that he knew Trump better than his own family and it was not a pretty sight He saw Trump as a sociopathic mobster boss who would do anything to win and destroy anybody who challenged him in his quest for success Cohen dumps a truckload of Trump family skeletons at the reader's feet and then picks them up one by one and executes a meticulous show and tell Mary L. Trump in Too Much and Never Enough claims Trump is an unlovable bullying cruel crass racist sociopathic fraud with delusions of grandeur. Rather than working for the American people who voted for him, Mary suggests he is only out for Trump and his children for the empire for more power, riches, and fame. In Trump V The United States, New York Times journalist Michael Schmidt investigates Trump as he spats with his government. Many in the FBI and above and House would like to see Trump gone. Schmidt, who won a Pulitzer Prize, takes the biographical perspective for two key players who play significant roles in Trump's affairs: FBI Director James Comey and Senior Legal Counsel Don McGahn. Comey was sure that Trump was obstructing justice for Michael Flynn and his claims and actions would lead to the Mueller investigation, which consumed two years of the Trump Presidency. Jewish Book World, 2008. Memoirs Are Made of This, Swan Adamson, 2012-04-26.

How to Get Ahead in Journalism by Venus Gilroy

1. Take a job as PA to a glamorous writer like Susanna Hyde, author of the wildly popular sex column Nothing to Hyde.
2. Spend your days walking Susanna's dogs, running errands, and delivering you've-been-dumped notes to lovers who are yesterday's news. Realise life in Manhattan is not as glamorous as you expected.
3. But when the boss asks you to cover her column, do not repeat, do not prove better at writing about sex than she is.
4. And when one day you accidentally hit it off a little too well with Susanna's latest ex-boy, sexy young writer Josh O'Connell, keep this information very, very secret from her.

Empathy and Impact: Memoir of an Educator, Joan Gordon Finch, 2022-03-21.

Frustrated with paperwork, testing, time demands, limited support, difficult relationships with parents, and feeling insecure about your ability to succeed as a teacher in the classroom, Teaching Children with Exceptionalities is a difficult task, not totally because of the children's needs but also because of the additional demands of the required documentation and legal restrictions. This book explores what to do when the job becomes overwhelming and how teachers can reignite their passion for their profession. The year 2020 was the forty-fifth anniversary of the Education for All Handicapped Children Act, now IDEA, and the thirtieth anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, ADA. Dr. Joan Finch has served a significant role in all the stages of these legal mandates and their impact on individuals with special needs for the past forty-five years. Through intense study and remarkable timing, she became an expert in the field of special education, and her entire career path runs parallel to the legal and societal changes occurring in America in regard to individuals with disabilities. The laws and attitudes around her have shifted significantly, but her desire to inspire students and teachers alike has never wavered.

"You're Not Gonna Believe This....", Charles E. Kaczorowski, 2017-06-12.

How would you like to join me on an unbelievable ride? Let us take a ride on a mystical wooden kiddie roller coaster as we travel thru my dash, you know that line that separates the date you were born and the date that says you died, to re-live my experiences when I went knocking on Heaven's door, starting at the early age of five years old, having to survive my first automobile accident. At sixteen, I drowned but was miraculously saved. Four years later, I was in Vietnam, then had two major automobile accidents, one before I was there in the WTC on the 93 bombing then another before I was there on 9 11 After ten months at Ground Zero I ended up with nineteen health ailments one being bladder cancer This will probably have you feel like youve been pushed back into that seat youre in and have you look to see if youre safely secured as we go about feeling the remainder of those climbs drops curves and hoops with me While were still on this journey I will tell you about some of these most amazing surprising coincidences that had occurred to me ones that I could never imagine happening and all because of this sudden change in me that came about hours later on September 11 2001 Why and more than anything why me I Found My Thrill on Parliament Hill Chnier-Cullen Nicole Chnier-Cullen, Nicole Chénier-Cullen, 2009 The Honourable Jack Sydney George just call me Bud Cullen defied all odds when he was elected Sarnia s Member of Parliament during the head spinning days of Trudeaumania Candid and outspoken Cullen was never one to shy away from controversy Just as he spoke openly about the difficult issues surrounding his ministerial responsibilities he never hid the fact that he and his chief of staff had fallen in love This memoir written after Cullen s death by his chief of staff who became his partner and wife of thirty years is unusually poignant and revealing Nicole Chenier Cullen s discussions of the critical issues that the minister tackled such as new immigration legislation dealing with Quebec s first separatist government and the tragedy of the Vietnamese refugees uncover a behind the scenes perspective never before known Her humorous straightforward account of life in a minister s office is most refreshing Her honest thoughtful discourse on how the couple survived what could have been a scandalous relationship adds a revealing dimension to the story as does her portrayal of Cullen s transition from politician to Federal Court judge Finally the author s heart wrenching account of her husband s final years and how the family coped with the ravages of Lewy Body an Alzheimer s related disease packs a real emotional punch Memoir of an Aviator David Craig, This book is the story of my life in aviation and is ideal reading for aviation enthusiasts passengers pilots mechanics and those seeking inspiration about following your dream My story has something for everyone romance love heartbreak toil perseverance and triumph It s also filled with technical details of military aircraft maintenance vivid descriptions of civil flight instruction airline pilot training military flight operations and stories from behind the flight deck door It is my very personal story of how I went from a teenager working in a furniture factory to the left seat of a Boeing airliner through a long and tumultuous journey Memoir of an Aviator My journey from factory worker to airline Captain is also a love story of my relationship with flying My story is not all just good times and favorable experiences There was romance then heartbreak There were triumphs then tribulations There was joy in reaching my lifetime goal and then sorrow after getting laid off soon after Sometimes I questioned the path I had chosen and through determination stubbornness and support from my spouse I made a career out of it The people I describe along the way are sometimes humorous at other times exasperating but always interesting My story is in four segments First is my experience as an Air Force mechanic for Strategic Air Command on Cold War era KC 135 tanker airplanes Next is a description of the remainder of my Air Force career as an inflight refueling operator aka boom operator I will tell you of my experiences on KC 135 and KC 10 tankers and of the many trips and operations I have been a part of Then my life took a turn and I trained as a commercial pilot ending up flying at the world s largest airline after years of progression After my flying days were over I worked for a major US airplane manufacturer developing training programs for civil and military pilots I ended my career running a site for a world class military flight simulation company This book will appeal to several interests Mechanics and airplane aficionados will enjoy the description of my crew chief days and work alongside me as I maintain a frontline war fighting asset Military aviation fans will like the description of my time as a boom operator as I haul cargo and refuel airplanes in midair around the world Pilots and those interested in what goes on beyond the airliner flight deck door will have plenty to enjoy with my description of airline training and flight operations From flying dogs furloughs flight training military life and people learning to fly this book has a lot to offer Sheltered from the
