E. Clarkson, 2011-05-05 Steven Jackson was raised in England on the wrong side of the track the Black Country where there's no right side After a convoluted journey through life he's content to bask in the Arizona sun and in his wife's attentions His only contact with England is via the Internet or his infrequent visits to the British and Dominion Club near Long Beach his English fix Into this idyll comes a letter from the British Embassy inviting him to discuss a matter of some delicacy Steven allows his wife Pamela to persuade him to respond to the letter only because the consulate is on the way to the beach at Santa Monica fish and chips at the Kings Head a visit with friends and maybe even some cricket The news is not what he expects he learns that he has a twenty-two year old daughter named Judith a potential son-in-law and some very distinguished in-laws He finds himself embroiled in the preparations for a royal wedding and suddenly in conflict with two of his least favorite institutions the British government and the media The Making of Indian English Literature Subhendu Mund, 2021-07-08 The Making of Indian English Literature brings together seventeen well-researched essays of Subhendu Mund with a long introduction by the author historicising the development of the Indian writing in English while exploring its identity among the many appellations tagged to it The volume demonstrates contrary to popular perceptions that before the official introduction of English education in India Indians had already tried their hands in nearly all forms of literature poetry fiction drama essay biography autobiography book review literary criticism and travel writing Besides translation activities Indians had also started editing and publishing periodicals in English before 1835 Through archival research the author brings to discussion a number of unknown and less discussed texts which contributed to the development of the genre The work includes exclusive essays on such early poets and writers as Kylas Chunder Dutt Shoshee Chunder Dutt Toru Dutt Mirza Moorad Alee Beg Krupabai Saththianadhan Swami Vivekananda H Dutt and Sita Chatterjee and historiographical studies on the various aspects of the genre The author also examines the strategies used by the early writers to indianise the western language and the form of the novel The present volume also demonstrates how from the very beginning Indian writing in English had a subtle nationalist agenda and created a space for protest literature The Making of Indian English Literature will prove an invaluable addition to the studies in Indian writing in English as a source of reference and motivation for further research Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Arun Deep's Self-Help to I.C.S.E.
